Student Travel Loan Scheme

The Student Travel Loan Scheme is intended to provide interest-free loans to full-time local undergraduate students who have good academic performance but need financial assistance to participate in short courses, internships, conferences, exchange programmes and overseas summer educational tours. The loans partially cover the travel expenses students incur in participating in learning activities overseas. The following student travel loans are available.

- > CUHK Affinity Card Programme Student Travel Loans
- > Mrs Ellen Li Student Travel Loans
- > Winsor Education Foundation Students' Interest-free Loan Programme
- > Shanghai Refugee Donation Student Travel Loans
- > Shell Student Travel Loans

Summer Subsistence Loan Scheme

The purpose of the Summer Subsistence Loan Scheme is to provide interest-free loans to full-time, local, non-final-year undergraduate students who have difficulty coping with the additional expenses incurred by participating in unpaid placements, education programmes or extra-curricular activities during the summer months.
