General Information for Thesis Preparation and Submission
– A Guide for Research Postgraduate and Taught Doctoral Students

- 1.0 Appointment of Supervisors
 - 1.1 The Graduate Panel has the responsibility and complete authority to appoint and to reassign academic staff to supervise your chosen topic or area of research. There should be only one designated Supervisor. A Co-supervisor is sometimes also designated to ensure continuity of supervision. In the case of co-supervision, the Graduate Panel shall designate who will be the Supervisor.
 - 1.2 If you wish to make a request to change your Supervisor/Co-supervisor, an application should be made to the Graduate Panel of the Division concerned by using the prescribed form.
- 2.0 Time for Submission
 - 2.1 Students are normally expected to submit their thesis/portfolio by the end of the normative study period, i.e. the normal time period allowed for completion of all programme requirements, as stipulated in the Annex of the "General Regulations Governing Postgraduate Studies".
 - 2.2 If you do not submit your thesis/portfolio and complete your programme requirements within this time limit, or the submission is not passed, then you will be put on "continuing status" until your successful completion of the thesis/portfolio or upon your reaching the maximum study period. Continuing students shall pay a "continuation fee" per term unless they continue to take
