Chung Chi College

College Motto: In Pursuit of Excellence

Chung Chi College was founded in 1951 by the Protestant Churches in Hong Kong to fill the need for a local institution of higher learning that would be both Chinese and Christian. It is characterized by an emphasis on liberal arts education and whole-person development.

Weiyuan Lake, the Chinese name of Lake Ad Excellentiam, literally meaning 'not complete', not only describes the shape of the lake but is a clever footnote to the College motto 'In Pursuit of Excellence'.

The double-storey A-frame Chung Chi Tang, built in 1972, serves as a student recreation centre and canteen.

The College Chapel, built in 1961, is situated half way up the hill along Chung Chi Road. Its colourful blocks of granite were indigenous and excavated while developing the College campus.

New Asia College

College Motto: Sincerity and Intelligence

New Asia College was founded in 1949 by a group of scholars from mainland China headed by Prof. Ch'ien Mu, who aimed at preserving traditional Chinese culture and balancing it with Western learning so that students might understand their cultural heritage while being able to cope with the challenges of the modern world.

The Pavilion of Harmony illustrates the idea of the 'union of man and nature' advocated by Prof. Ch'ien Mu. Sitting by the pond, one may feel to be an integral part of nature.

The bronze Statue of Confucius faces north towards the hometown of Confucius in Shandong province. At the back of the statue is a bamboo stick engraved with Confucius' teaching ideal, 'ever learning, and never tired of teaching'.

The New Asia Amphitheatre is a popular venue for student activities. Names of the College graduates are engraved on its two curved walls.

United College

College Motto: Make One's Virtues Shine and Renew the People

United College was founded in 1956 through the amalgamation of five post-secondary colleges which were originally private universities in Guangzhou and its vicinity and were closely related to higher education in Hong Kong.

The Water Tower has been serving United College since 1970. On special occasions, this graceful structure is lit up for a festive mood.

Built in 1996, the Cascade is a popular venue among students for graduation photographs.

The Sculpture Garden outside the Wu Chung Multimedia Library has a distinctive artistic ambience.

Shaw College

College Motto: Cultivating One's Virtue and Going Deeply into What One has Learned

Shaw College was founded in 1986 with private donations to promote the cultivation of virtue and the pursuit of knowledge. The Wen Lan Hall of the College provides a vantage point to admire the beautiful scenery of the Tolo Harbour and the nearby Pat Sin Leng.

The dynamically shaped College Sign situated on the Shaw Terrace at the campus entrance represents the College spirit and a readiness to face new challenges squarely.

The Shaw College Mural, located beneath the sign, incorporates several important icons such as the College Sign, the Tolo Harbour, Hong Kong Orchid and Chek Nai Ping Village near the University.

The 800 m² HERBSnSENSES Chinese Medicinal Garden is the home for over 20 flowering and fragrant herbs planted for teaching and research purposes.

Morningside College

College Motto: Scholarship, Virtue, Service

晨興書院
MORNINGSIDE COLLEGE

Founded in 2006, Morningside College seeks to cultivate independent and creative thought, study to good purpose, vigorous debate and service to Hong Kong, China, and the world.

Morningside is fully residential and accommodates 300 students. The relatively small size allows for a level of intimacy and intellectual exchange amongst students that is possible only in a small, cohesive community.

S.H. Ho College

College Motto: Culture, Morals, Devotion, Trustworthiness

Founded in 2006, S.H. Ho College is a fully residential college which provides regular communal dining. The College seeks above all to provide its students with a welcoming environment where they can call home, and is attentive to tried and tested traditions of whole-person education.

C.W. Chu College

College Motto: Cultus et Beneficentia

Founded in 2007, C.W. Chu College is named after Dr. Chu Ching-wen (1906–1996). The College is established with the vision to be an intimate community of scholars drawn from diverse backgrounds, engaged with the world in a spirit of curiosity and generosity. This vision statement embraces four elements (intimate, international, intellectual and involved) which distinguish the College and lay the path for its development.

Wu Yee Sun College

College Motto: Scholarship and Perseverance

Founded in 2007, Wu Yee Sun College seeks to cultivate among students an entrepreneurial spirit with social responsibility. In the College's intimate and dynamic learning atmosphere, students will develop the drive for social entrepreneurship: a passion for creativity and innovation, and acumen in pursuing new initiatives and ideas, not just for personal gain but for the common good.

Lee Woo Sing College

College Motto: Wisdom, Humanity, Integrity, Harmony

Founded in 2007, Lee Woo Sing College aims at developing leaders with excellent communication and leadership skills for Hong Kong, mainland China and the world. The College also emphasizes the spirit of 'Harmony', being kind to people and handling things with moderation.

By implementing various green measures and carbon reduction and renewable energy initiatives, the College strives to create an environment in harmony with its natural surroundings.
