The screenshot shows the 'Loans' page on the CUHK Library website. The page title is 'Loans' and it includes a 'back to: Loans' link. The main content area is titled 'Hong Kong Academic Library Link (HKALL)' and describes the service. It mentions that users can request circulating materials from seven UGC libraries. A table provides details on loan quotas and periods for different user groups. A sidebar on the right contains a list of related links.

Hong Kong Academic Library Link (HKALL)

Through the Hong Kong Academic Library Link (HKALL), CUHK faculty, staff and students may request circulating materials of the other seven UGC libraries to be delivered to the University Library OR the Medical Library OR the Legal Resources Centre.

Eligible users may search and place hold* on the desired items by selecting HKALL from the pull down menu of Search All University Libraries in HK at the CUHK Library Online Catalogue. A Hold Pickup Notice will be sent to users when the requested item is available.

Users may request HKALL materials to be transferred to their preferred CUHK library for checking out through the Inter-Branch Book Delivery.

Eligible Users	HKALL Loan quota *	HKALL Loan periods
Undergraduate students	10	15 days
Postgraduate students	10	30 days
Research staff	20	30 days
Teaching staff (Terms A)	20	30 days
Teaching staff (Terms B)	20	30 days
