For students who are being placed on the waiting list of a particular course via CUSIS, you are strongly recommended to attend all classes during add/drop period as you may get the seat if someone drops the course. Moreover, if you do not want to take the course anymore, please remove your name from the waiting list to avoid enrolling into the course unexpectedly.

MPhil/PhD students who are interested in taking the above language courses are required to submit the "CS-1 form" (obtained from Graduate School website) to the General Office of the Department of Linguistics and Modern Languages (G17, G/F, Leung Kau Kui Building). For students who have third language requirements, please submit the form to us from 4 January 2021, while students who do not have third language requirements, please submit the form to us from 5 January 2021. Please note that seats will be allocated on first-come, first-served basis.
