

Public Lecture – From the Night Sky to the 'God Particle'... and Back

Date: 11 November 2020 (Wednesday)

Time: 16:30 – 17:45

Event: As part of the event "Digital November" organized by the Consulate General of France in Hong Kong and Macau, Prof. Luis Roberto Flores-Castillo (CUHK) and French astrophysicist Dr. Fatoumata Kebe (joined via Zoom), a specialist in space debris, will give popular science talks about their research ranging from astrophysics to particle physics. The talks will be followed by an exchange between the speakers and the audience.

Venue: (1) LT2, Yasumoto International Academic Park, CUHK (quota: 100) and (2) via ZOOM (quota: 300), meeting ID and password will be sent to successful registrants by email.

Registration: <https://forms.gle/qHPfoEc8SqaLrfMTA>

Deadline of Registration: 8 November 2020 (Sun)

The talk will be conducted in English.

Remarks:

- Registration will be closed when the quota is reached.
- Body temperature of all participants will be measured before entering the lecture hall.
- All participants must wear masks in lecture hall during the talk.
- At least one seat will be left empty in any direction from any seat taken.
- Food and drinks are strictly forbidden in the lecture hall.
- Please keep social distancing throughout the talk.

Enquiries: 3943-6303