1. INTRODUCTION

This Handbook is to be used by both students and teachers as a guide to Graduation Thesis writing on the one hand and supervision and assessment on the other. You are advised to read through the entire text to understand the overall requirements for the two courses pertaining to Graduation Thesis, i.e., HIST 4801 Graduation Thesis Guidance and HIST 4802 Graduation Thesis.

The content of this Handbook will be under regular review and is subject to change at the discretion of the History Department. Suggestions for revisions should be directed to the History Department, The Chinese University of Hong Kong.

2. THE COURSE

2.1 HIST 4801 Graduation Thesis Guidance

Units: 0

Course Syllabus:

The student will write a thesis under the supervision of an instructor. Topic and contents of the thesis are to be determined in consultation with the supervisor and are subject to the approval of the Department of History. Thesis proposal must be endorsed by the student's supervisor on or before the third Monday in July.

Enrolment Qualification:

For History Majors in their final year of attendance only.

Learning Outcomes:

The student will be expected to have completed a bibliography, drafted the outline and an introductory chapter of the Graduation Thesis by the end of the term. Students should have learnt the skills of writing an academic thesis after taking the course.

2.2 HIST 4802 Graduation Thesis

Units: 6

Course Syllabus:

This course is the continuation of HIST 4801.

Enrolment Requirement:

Prerequisite: HIST 4801

Learning Outcomes:

The student will be expected to have completed the Graduation Thesis by the end of the term. Students should have learnt the skills of analytical and critical thinking as well as systemic organization which are important for writing an academic thesis.

Assessment Scheme:

The thesis: 100% (including preparatory research [30%] and research product [70%])

3. ASSESSMENT

- 3.1 Each student will be working on his/her Graduation Thesis project under the guidance of a Supervisor who is responsible for monitoring the student's progress. The normally scheduled interaction between each student and his/her Supervisor may vary according to the student and the nature of the topic selected. This interaction may take the form of an individual consultation or small group tutorial.
- 3.2 Each thesis will be assessed by the Supervisor and a Second Reader.
- 3.3 The Supervisor monitors the progress of the student's work on a regular basis as it is being performed. The Second Reader will assess the final product only.
- 3.4 The final grade of the Graduate Thesis will be decided by the Supervisor in consultation with the Second Reader.
- 3.5 The assessment of the final product will be based on the following quantitative division:
- | | |
|---|-----|
| Preparatory research work | 30% |
| Research product (Methodology & Approach, Argument, Presentation, References, etc.) | 70% |

4. COURSE REGISTRATION

Students should approach their potential supervisors starting from the beginning of the 2nd term of the third year of attendance. Please mind the deadlines to submit the Tentative Topic of Graduation Thesis for the purpose of course registration (generally end of May) and Final Topic for approval by the Department Board (generally mid-September). 7. GUIDELINES FOR THE STUDENTS

7.1 Each student should:

- a) Work independently,
- b) Implement the writing plan and monitor its development,
- c) Report to the Supervisor on the progress of the course at least twice a month, or as required by his/her Supervisor, and
- d) Observe all deadlines set for various purposes by his/her Supervisor and by the Department.

7.2 The deadline for the submission of the Graduation Thesis should be strictly observed. Any late submission will be considered on a case-by-case basis, with penalties deemed appropriated by the Department's Examination Panel.

7.3 The student should bear in mind that the project is your own responsibility. Do not expect your Supervisor to provide you with ready-made ideas, topics or sources or to copy-edit your text.

7.4 Attention is drawn to University policy and regulations on honesty in academic work, and to the disciplinary guidelines and procedures applicable to breaches of such policy and regulations. Details may be found at <http://www.cuhk.edu.hk/policy/academichonesty/> .

With the final submission, students will be required to submit a signed declaration that they are aware of these policies, regulations, guidelines and procedures.

For submission in the form of a computer-generated document that is principally text-based and submitted via VeriGuide, the statement, in the form of a receipt, will be issued by the system upon students' uploading of the soft copy of the assignment. Assignments without the receipt will not be graded by teachers. Only the final version of the thesis should be submitted via VeriGuide.

8. GUIDELINES FOR THE SUPERVISOR AND THE SECOND READER

- 8.1 Number of students per Supervisor: no more than 5
- 8.2 The Supervisors are expected to meet their students regularly, either individually or in the form of small-group tutorials, and to supervise the progress of the students' thesis projects throughout the period.
- 8.3 The Supervisor do not need to copy-edit the entire thesis for the student prior to its formal submission because the thesis should be a true reflection of the student's ability and performance.
- 8.4 The Supervisor, however, may read a small portion of the student's thesis draft for stylist changes or grammatical corrections.
- 8.5 The Second Reader is not expected to change any portion of the thesis draft for the student as the Second Reader is not a second supervisor. In the reading of the final product, the Second Reader is expected to mark the thesis independently before meeting the Supervisor for the decision of the final grade.
