

United College
The Chinese University of Hong Kong

Social Service Award Scheme

The Scheme was launched in September 2002 to promote voluntary service for the benefit of the community. The Scheme is open to all United College students and assessment is on a yearly basis:

1. A Bronze Prize for 50 or more hours of voluntary service in one year;
2. A Silver Prize for 110 or more hours of voluntary service in two consecutive years;
3. A Gold Prize for 200 or more hours of voluntary service in three consecutive years.

Voluntary service in existing programmes organized by the College is included in the Scheme, such as social services undertaken by the United College Rotaract Club and United College Leadership Training Society and Service Learning Internship Programme.

United College is also a registered organisation under the Volunteer Movement programme of the Social Welfare Department. Participants in the College's Social Service Award Scheme may also obtain an Award of Social Service from the Volunteer Movement programme if they meet the award criteria.

- ✧ More awards will be established and presented to students with outstanding performance in the Scheme.
- ✧ Students are welcome to come to the Dean of Students' Office, 1/F, Tsang Shiu Tim Building, United College to get a Record Book of Volunteer Service.
