ENGE 1320 Communications for English Majors II

Second Term January to April 2021 Tuesdays Professor Ron Darvin | ron.darvin@cuhk.edu.hk | 3943.7020 Consultations FKH325 by appointment

This course builds on the foundational communication skills introduced in ENGE 1310 and helps you develop the competencies necessary to conduct effective research. It examines the existing structures and conventions of various print and digital genres such as journal articles, blogs, infographics, and YouTube videos. It also discusses different patterns of development such as definition, problem/ solution, comparison/ contrast, classification and division, and the importance of maintaining an appropriate register and style. To help you produce and consume knowledge in creative and critical ways, you will construct an abstract, an annotated bibliography, a literature review, a video, and a research article that discusses an issue in applied linguistics. These texts will be constructed for real world audiences and will involve the use of various multimodal resources. Through a process-oriented approach, you will be producing outlines and drafts of these writing tasks, get feedback, and learn writing strategies such as signposting, using signal phrases, and constructing parallel structures. Recognizing the increasing importance of technology in producing and consuming knowledge, this course also discusses the use of various digital tools such as search engines, reference management software, blogging and video editing platforms.

Learning Outcomes

By the end of this course, students should be able to:

- 1. Write a literature review that provides an overview of existing research on a particular topic
- 2. Produce a research paper on a specific issue in applied linguistics
- 3. Compose a short video that uses multimodal resources to present a research topic
- 4. Recognize the structures and conventions of various spoken and written genres e.g. journal articles, books, infographics, educational videos Understand how differences in audience, purpose, medium of communication shape the register, style, and organization of texts.

Key Topics

To achieve the abovementioned learning outcomes, this course will cover the following major concepts and topics:

1. Genres: academic genres such as journal articles, monographs, and edited volumes; digital genres such as infographics, news websites, Wikipedia, blogs, and YouTube videos

2. Medium and context:

- Identifying audience and purpose
- Understanding the affordances and constraints of different media
- Choosing appropriate register and style
- Using multimodal resources

3. Content and structure

- Recognizing patterns of development: definition, problem/solution, comparison/contrast, classification and division
- Organizing ideas in an outline: introduction, body, conclusion
- Formulating thesis statements and topic sentences
- Building supporting evidence: textual evidence, concrete and specific examples

4. Language focus

- Signposting
- Using signal phrases
- Constructing parallel structures
- 5. Tools
 - Blogging platforms (e.g. WordPress)
 - Search engines (e.g. Google Scholar)
 - Reference management software (e.g. Mendeley)
 - Video editing software (e.g. iMovie, Splice)
- 6. Citation style: APA

Format of Class Meetings

Lectures: 2 hours / week Tutorials: 1 hour / week

Learning activities

Apart from the presentation and discussion of course content, lectures will involve interactive tasks where you will engage with various digital platforms. Tutorials will involve answering discussion questions and evaluating the designs of these platforms. To perform these activities, you are expected to bring either a laptop, mobile phone, or tablet to class. You may be required to download some apps before class.

Lecture	Tutorial	Online discussion	Reading + Technology use	Preparing assessment tasks
In class	In class	Out class	Out class	Out class
2 hrs	1 hr	1 hr	2 hrs	3 hrs

M = Mandatory O = Optional (but highly recommended)

eLearning: We will be using Zoom and Blackboard in this course to facilitate online discussions, share course resources (PDFs, videos, website links, etc.), make announcements, and submit course assignments.

Required Readings

There is no required textbook for this course. Assigned readings and worksheets will be made available through Blackboard.

Assessment

Requirement	Weight
Class and Online Participation	10%
Abstract, Annotated Bibliography, Literature Review	30%

Educational Video	30%

Late submissions will be penalized.

Grade Descriptors

Grade A / Excellent / 4.0: Outstanding performance on ALL learning outcomes. Demonstrates the ability to synthesize and apply the principles or skills learned in the course in a manner that would surpass the normal expectations at this level and typical of standards that may be common at higher levels of study. The 'A' is reserved for truly excellent work that exceeds the level expected for the majority of students and are expected to be achieved only by a small minority

Grade A- / Very Good / 3.7: Generally outstanding performance on ALMOST ALL learning outcomes. Demonstrates the ability to synthesize and apply the principles or skills learned in the course in a manner that would fully fulfill the normal expectations at this level and occasionally reaches standards that may be common at higher levels of study.

Grade B+ / Good (Plus) / 3.3: HIGH performance on all learning outcomes, OR HIGH performance on some learning outcomes which compensates WELL for slightly less satisfactory performance on others, resulting in overall substantial performance. Demonstrates the ability to apply WELL the principles or skills learned in the course in a comprehensive manner that would sufficiently fulfill the normal expectations at this level WELL.

Grade B / Good / 3.0: SUBSTANTIAL performance on all learning outcomes, OR SUBSTANTIAL performance on some learning outcomes which compensates for slightly less satisfactory performance on others, resulting in overall substantial performance. Demonstrates the ability to apply the principles or skills learned in the course in a MORE COMPREHENSIVE manner that would sufficiently fulfill the normal expectations at this level.

Grade B- / Good (Minus) / 2.7: GOOD performance on all learning outcomes, OR GOOD performance on some learning outcomes which compensates for slightly less satisfactory performance on others, resulting in overall substantial performance. Demonstrates the ability to apply the principles or skills learned in the course in a COMPREHENSIVE manner that would sufficiently fulfill the normal expectations at this level.

Grade C+ / Adequate (Plus) / 2.3: VERY ADEQUATE performance on the majority of learning outcomes. Demonstrates the ability to apply the principles or skills learned in the course in a SOMEWHAT SUSTAINED manner that would meet the basic requirement at this level.

Grade C / Adequate / 2.0: ADEQUATE performance on the majority of learning outcomes. Demonstrates the ability to partially apply the principles or skills learned in the course in a manner that would meet the basic requirement at this level.

Grade C- / Adequate (Minus) / 1.7: SOMEWHAT ADEQUATE performance on A NUMBER OF learning outcomes. Demonstrates the ability to SOMEWHAT apply the principles or skills learned in the course in a manner that would meet the BARE basic requirement at this level.

Grade D+ / Pass (Plus) / 1.3: BARELY SATISFACTORY performance on A FEW learning outcomes. Addresses the task inadequately by meeting the basic requirement at this level only in some areas while responding minimally with possibly tangential content in others.

Grade D / Pass / 1.0: ALMOST BARELY SATISFACTORY performance on VERY FEW learning outcomes. Addresses the task inadequately by meeting the basic requirement at this level only in very few areas while responding very minimally with possibly tangential content in others.

Grade F / Failure / 0.0: Unsatisfactory performance on a number of learning outcomes, OR failure to meet specified assessment requirements. Fails to address the task and likely does not understand what the task requires. In other words, the work completely misses the point.

Schedule

A more detailed schedule will be provided at the start of the course.

Course Feedback and Evaluation

At the end of the course, you will be asked to complete Course Evaluations for both the lectures and tutorials. This information is highly valued and is used to revise teaching methods, tasks, and content. During the term, you are also strongly encouraged to provide feedback on the course via email or meetings with the professor or tutors. Midway through the term, you will also be asked to provide feedback via a brief questionnaire on the course content, teaching methods, and tasks in order to determine if adjustments need to be made for the remainder of the term.

Academic honesty

Each student is responsible for his or her conduct as it affects the university community. Academic dishonesty, in whatever form, is ultimately destructive of the values of the CUHK and is unfair and discouraging to the majority of students who pursue their studies honestly. Scholarly integrity is required of all members of the university. Details regarding CUHK policy and regulations on honesty in academic work, and the disciplinary guidelines and procedures applicable to breaches of such policy and regulations can be found at http://www.cuhk.edu.hk/policy/academichonesty/. With each assignment, students will be required to submit a statement that they are aware of these policies, regulations, guidelines and procedures. Text-based assignments will need to be submitted to Veriguide, and the statement in the form of the receipt will be issued by the system.
