JCI Kowloon – Shelter Dreams 2014

JCI Kowloon – Shelter Dreams 2014 Organizing Committee, is honored to organize a large-scale public and community concern project called “Shelter Dreams”. Shelter Dreams is about staying out for a night, with a cardboard built shelter, in which the participants can experience how it may feel to stay under a poor environment, and to learn how to make themselves the best possible condition of shelter with limited and simple resources. This provides a platform to Hong Kong people especially for youngsters to experience the poor’s living condition so as to realize their value of life and strength in serving the others in need.

In Shelter Dreams 2011 to 2013, there were more than 1,000 participants from various schools and colleges, as well as other supporting organizations. They benefited from the rare life changing experience through the event of Shelter Dreams project.

On behalf of Junior Chamber International Kowloon (JCI Kowloon), we would like to express our sincere gratitude cordially to invite you to join our “Shelter Dreams Experience Camp 2014” as participants or volunteers.
