UGC Block Grant Student Activities Fund (UGC Fund) and The Federation of Alumni Association's Student Activity Fund (FAA Fund)

The UGC Fund aims to support registered student bodies to organise extra-curricular activities while the FAA Fund was founded to encourage both student bodies and individuals to participate in student programmes/international conferences. Both funds will be open for application on 3 January 2012. Please visit our website (<http://www.cuhk.edu.hk/osa>) for details and application form. The duly completed application form should be returned to the Student Services Centre on 1/F of Benjamin Franklin Centre by 31 January 2012. Please contact Ms. Wan at 3943 7203 for enquiries.

Enhancement of Service and Renovation Work of Women Cooperative Store (女工合作小賣店)

The Women Cooperative Store located at the lower ground of Benjamin Franklin Centre will enhance its scope of service upon the expansion of the store's area to almost double. The additional services include selling of Chinese herbal tea, organic food and fair-trade products, etc. A new photocopier will also be installed to provide photocopying service.

The renovation work for the space expansion has been carried out since 13 December 2011. The service of the Store will suspend from 19 Dec 2011 to 8 January 2012 and it will resume normal on 9 January 2012.
