Personal Statement Online Workshop

This online workshop will help participants to prepare effective personal statement for university application.

Upon completing the course, students should be able to:

- understand the importance of personal statement,
- master the key elements of an effective personal statement,
- improve the language of the personal statement, and
- enhance the application with well-written and formatted CV.

Instructor	Date	Time
Ada Li	3/3/2021	11am-1pm