Connect/ Use to eduroam / Universities via CSL / Universities via Y5ZONE through a 802 dot1x connection- Macintosh Users
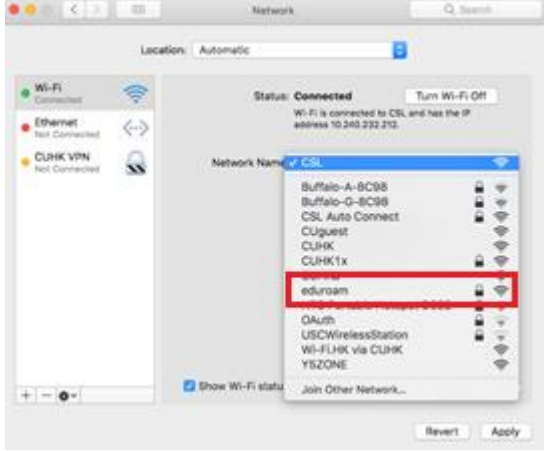

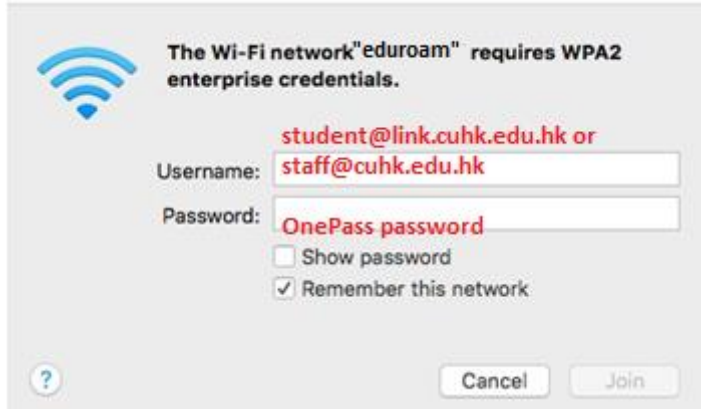

(This document describes how to connect to eduroam / Universities via CSL / Universities via Y5ZONE using a 802 dot1x secure connection using a Macintosh Mac OS X. Before using this service, you should first sign up for your Wi-Fi Account.)

Table of Contents

A. Detect and Connect to eduroam / Universities via CSL / Universities via Y5ZONE

|
1. Turn on the Wi-Fi function of your computer - Click at the top menu bar ![wifi icon] . You will see a list of available wireless networks. OR - Open System Preference -> Network You should see the available wireless networks in the list. Click Refresh network list if you cannot find eduroam in the list. Click eduroam / Universities via CSL / Universities via Y5ZONE	OR

2. Choose eduroam (or Universities via CSL or Universities via Y5ZONE) and then click Connect.
3. In the Network Authentication window, enter the following. • User name For eduroam / Universities via CSL / Universities via Y5ZONE, it is "your_Computing_ID@cuhk.edu.hk" (e.g. s0123456@cuhk.edu.hk) • Password (the password you have created for this programme.) Click OK.

B. Re-connect from eduroam / Universities via CSL / Universities via Y5ZONE

1. Click at the top menu bar 🛜 . You will see a list of available wireless networks.

   Choose eduroam and then access will be re-connected without login.

   This will also apply to Universities via CSL / Universities via Y5ZONE

Prepared by: User Support Services, Information Technology Services Centre

Last Update: 09 May 2018