Department Announcement 2019-20 Summer Term

General notes for students taking Japanese language courses

JASP3340 Japanese Improvement Strategies – Vocabularies, Grammar, Listening and Reading

This course is for Japanese Studies major students only. For minor or elective students, please enroll in regular terms.

JASP1450/1460/2450/2460 (New Practical Japanese I/II/III/IV)

- Due to fast progress of the course, students are strongly advised to complete the add/drop as soon as possible during the department add/drop period.

Department add-drop period:

For JASP1450/2450: 25 - 26 May 2020

For JASP1460: 17 - 18 June 2020

For JASP2460: 16 - 17 June 2020

- Students must obtain Grade C- or above to be qualified to take the succeeding level courses. Students will be asked to drop the succeeding course should they fail to meet this requirement, even though they have successfully registered in the succeeding course through CUSIS.
- Students who do not attend class without medical certificate or strong reasons will result in mark deduction. Students who do not attend one-third of classes may fail the subject. For details, please refer to the regulations distributed in the first lesson.
- Postgraduate students who are interested in taking the language courses are required to send a written request with the completed CS-1 form (<https://www.gs.cuhk.edu.hk/download/CS1.pdf>) along with both the student's and supervisor's signatures, course code, course title, class session and personal information to Ms. Zoe Ng at zoeng@cuhk.edu.hk to do the registration in advance. Colleagues will contact you whether your course registration will be approved or not.

For details, please refer to the announcement of the Department homepage later:
