The Introduction of United College Student Union

The Chinese University of Hong Kong has a total of nine Colleges, each College has an independent and democratic self-government organization - Student Union. The University and the College Student Union operate independently. They serve as a bridge between students and the university and between students and their respective Colleges. As a student Union, We promote, Collecting and reflecting the views of students, fighting and guarantee for the rights and interests of students, also hold fast the principle of the supremacy of students, supervise the college governance, assist Colleges to implement those reasonable non-controversial policies and advocate the liberty of academic through and the freedom of speech. Besides, we are leading students to concern about social affairs, to cultivate the spirit of liberty and democracy. Organizing activities and providing benefits to students are jobs of the Student Unions, even aid the student union of the Chinese university to implement conference affairs.

When you join United College, you will automatically become a member of the United College Student Union. As a member of the College Student Union, you will be able to enjoy the benefits, services and facilities provided by the Student Union. You may also participate in the activities organized by the Union. You can attend the General Assembly and the meetings and enjoys the following rights, such as suffrage, right to be elected and right to recall. The student Union are enjoying a high degree of autonomy, free from a college of its control and jurisdiction, the union aid only when appropriate. Therefore, students of the United College can be appointed by the Student Union to participate in meetings of the College Assembly of Fellows, such as the Canteen Management Committee, the College Life Committee and the Student Hostels Management Committee. Through participating in these committees, students can help improve and change the institution of the College. If the students wish to take the initiative to speak for the students, to maintain or even to improve the Student Union or College atmosphere, affairs and system, students are welcomed to form a cabinet and take part in the Student Union election. Students can participate in the composition of a new cabinet at the beginning of the new semester.
