

"SOMEONE DEAD NINE TIMES OUT OF TEN", narrator of Bizarre Happenings, takes a peep from his hideout at the predatory insects, animals and ghosts whose assorted wickedness furnish material for his tales. This article is decorated with a selection of original woodblock prints made by Miss Rosanna Wei-han Li for Shih Shun Liu's translation of the novel, to be published by the Chinese University of Hong Kong under the title Vignettes from the Late Ch'ing.