

GERMAN NIGHT on 28.2.2017

Are you interested in going to a German-speaking country to

- * do a German language summer course there?
- * do a German language summer course there that is funded by the German government (DAAD scholarship)?

The German team of the Department of Linguistics and Modern Languages is hosting a “German Night” that will answer many questions you might have regarding going abroad to study German.

We have invited students who took the summer course in Germany to share their experiences and answer questions you might have.

When? Tuesday, February 28, 6:30 p.m.

Where? Room 101, Leung Kau Kui Building

Please register by February 24, 2017 by sending an e-mail to german@cuhk.edu.hk. Please write “German Night” on the subject field of your email message, and state your (i) name, (ii) student ID, (iii) phone number and (iv) if you are taking German course right now, please specify the course code.

We look forward to seeing you!

German Team

Department of Linguistics and Modern Languages