The Chinese University of Hong Kong

The CUHK Chinese Culture Festival for International Students
Establishing and fostering the link between CUHK and the international communities in Hong Kong and the Greater China through series of cultural exchange activities.

Program Details

Participants are international students at CUHK, sponsors and partners, local students and invited multinational guests from various sectors.

Highlights of the Festival include:

- Performances from the global community
- Cultural Exchange Gala Dinner Party with Lucky Draw
- The Annual fund-raising Auctions and celebrities appearances
- Multinational-theme Exhibition

The aim of the CUHK Chinese Culture Festival for International Students is to provide medium for the International students at CUHK to appreciate the Chinese language and culture in a friendly atmosphere. The Festival will normally be held one week after the Chinese New Year (around late February).

The Chinese Language and Culture (Hong Kong) Foundation

The Foundation, set up in 2004, aims to promote Chinese language and culture among students all over the world. With private donations and matching funds from institutions and governmental agencies, the foundation will eventually provide continuing support for programs and activities that serve its noble aim. The Chinese Language and Culture (Hong Kong) Foundation supports and implements program activities which facilitate continuing development of the Yale-China Chinese Language Centre (CLC) as part of the University.
