

Definition 10.21 The random variable Y is related to the random variable X through a conditional distribution $p(y|x)$ defined for all x means