

Continental Shelf Limits: The Scientific and Legal Interface

Prof. Weiwei Ding
(丁巍偉教授)

*The Second Institute of Oceanography
State Oceanic Administration, China*

This Seminar is cancelled.

10 April 2017

11:00 a.m.

Conference Room, 3/F,
Mong Man Wai Building

This Seminar will be conducted in Putonghua

ents of the law of national practice of the continental shelf. The regime of extended continental shelf is a new invention in the United Nations Convention on the Law of the Sea (UNCLOS). The implementation of this regime has generated much interest as well debates at both national and international levels. In this lecture the history of the UNCLOS, the basic scientific and legal elements in determining the outer limits of continental shelf beyond 200 nautical miles and the regime of the international seabed area, and cases in the East China Sea and West Pacific regions will be presented.

Enquires: 3943 9624 essc@cuhk.edu.hk