Career Development Facilitation Service

Pilot scheme for Morningside alumni

- Jointly organised by Morningside College and School of Continuing and Professional Studies (CUSCS) of CUHK
- Provides professional career facilitation service by career development facilitators
- Guides alumni to enhance self-understanding for planning or embarking on their career development through face-to-face consultations and assessments
- Matching of one alumna/us with one career development facilitator by CUSCS

About Certified Career Development Facilitators

The School of Continuing and Professional Studies of The Chinese University of Hong Kong (CUSCS) launched the Global Career Development Facilitator (GCDF) Programme in 2014 and the Facilitating Career Development (FCD) Programme in 2019. Among the more than 1,200 trainees who have completed the programmes are experienced professionals from various fields including education, administration and management, human resources and training, social work and helping professions.

There are 2 types of certified career development facilitators – Certified Career Services Provider (CCSP) and Global Career Development Facilitator (GCDF). The CCSP credential is certified by the National Career Development Association (NCDA), while the GCDF credential is certified by the Center for Credentialing and Education (CCE) of the National Board for Certified Counsellors (NBCC), U.S.A.

More about Career Development Education

www.cuscs.hk/careerdevelopment

Career development is a lifelong and ongoing process of discovery across all stages of life involving career, family and societal roles. Career development facilitation assists the client to better understand his/her own needs and potentials at different life stages so as to explore the path for career and personal development.

What can a Career Development Facilitator assist you?

- Examination of characteristics, interests, core values, needs & dreams
 - Knowledge of job prerequisites & ability assessment
 - Self exploration & reflection to facilitate career decisions
 - Self-understanding for holistic life planning
- Path finding through 4 individual meetings
