

The Sixteenth Graduate Seminar on Modern and Contemporary China

January 6 - 7, 2022

亞太漢學中心

中國文化研究所
INSTITUTE OF CHINESE STUDIES

中國研究中心 CENTRE FOR CHINA STUDIES
The Chinese University of Hong Kong | 香港中文大學

THEME:

LAND IN CHINA 1900 - 2022

This event continues the Seminar organized at the Chinese University of Hong Kong (CUHK) since 2005 by the Universities Service Centre for China Studies (USC) with support from the CUHK-Chiang Ching-kuo Foundation Asia-Pacific Centre for Chinese Studies.

We welcome proposals on issues surrounding land in China from across a broad spectrum of environmental, economic, political, legal, social, ideological and cultural approaches. Papers should be based on original, empirical research.

Eligibility :

Ph.D. candidates (ABDs) and new Ph.D. degree holders (within 5 years of graduation)

To apply, submit the following documents to cuhkgsoc@cuhk.edu.hk by August 16, 2021:

- Application form
- Updated CV
- Recommendation letter from dissertation supervisor (for ABDs)
- Title and abstract (up to 250 words)

We will assist with booking affordable and convenient lodging during the Seminar. We will also provide travel subsidies to participants.

Seminar Organizing Committee:

Jan Kiely Kristof Van den Troost
Pierre Landry Vivian Zhan
Ling Minhua

Enquiry:

cuhkgsoc@cuhk.edu.hk

Remark:

If public health conditions for travel to or in Hong Kong do not permit the holding of the Seminar in-person, it will be rescheduled to a time when that will be possible.

