The Chinese University of Hong Kong
Office of Academic Links (China)
CU in Mainland & Taiwan: Application Guidelines

Eligibility & Important Notes

1. All full-time undergraduate and postgraduate students of CUHK are welcome to apply. The host institution normally gives priority to Hong Kong local and Macau students.
2. Participants should be holders of valid home return permits (for mainland programmes), passports (for programmes to Taiwan and other countries) or other relevant visa documents.
3. Participants will be requested to travel to the destination(s) together with other participants by the same means of transport and with the same travel schedule, and to complete the entire programme.(Not applicable to online activity)
4. Students can apply for more than one programme every term, but OALC reserves full right of quota allocation.
5. Please complete the online application form carefully. OALC will not be liable for any failure of receiving information from OALC due to mistakes in data inputs.
6. The exchange activities organized by the Office are opened to students who are interested in the Mainland (and overseas) exchanges. All activities are not compulsory courses in any subject.
7. Before applying for any online or offline credit-bearing courses, please check with your department and the Registration and Examination Section (RES) about the requirements and criteria for transferring credits concerned; participating in credit-bearing courses through OALC does NOT necessarily mean that you can transfer relevant credits.

Programme Fees (Not applicable to online activity)

All expenses incurred in the destination, including local accommodation, meal, group activities and transport, are to be borne by the host institution. Participants have to bear any travelling expenses (round-trip flight or train tickets) and their personal expenses in the destination(s). CUHK will provide basic travel insurance for participants. Details of the insurance coverage are available at the webpage below:

http://www.cuhk.edu.hk/bursary/eng/public/purchase\_guides/insurance.html (student login required)

We suggest participants purchase extra insurance according to their individual needs.

Programme Requirements

Participating students are required to:

1. read and sign a letter of undertaking; (Not applicable to online activity)
2. attend a pre-departure briefing session as instructed; (Not applicable to online activity)
3. submit a programme article / report (no fewer than 500 words for each student), programme photos (5 for each student), programme videos (2 short clips for every 10 students) within ONE week after the programme (Not applicable to online activity)
4. complete an online questionnaire to OALC
5. fulfill other requirements as requested by the host institution

Financial Support for Participants (Not applicable to online activity)

CUHK undergraduates can apply through OAL for the “Non-means-tested Mainland Experience Scheme for Post-secondary Students (NMT-MES)” of the HKSAR Education Bureau.

Application

Please access our webpage and complete the online registration by the deadline as stated on our webpage. Our Office may alter the application deadline without prior notice. In general, quotas are distributed evenly and on a ‘first-come-first-served’ basis. Students will only receive more than one offer when there is under-application. Successful applicants will receive our email notification within two weeks after the application deadline (please check the junk box of your email address as well), and will be asked to confirm their acceptance of offer by the deadline. Other candidates will be automatically put under the waiting list. In case of any dispute, the Office reserves the right to make the final decision.
