

U.S.-Hong Kong 2018 Conference

"Aging across Time and Contexts"

We are very happy to announce that GSA will co-organize the international conference with the CUHK-NCKU Joint Centre for Positive Social Science and the Chinese University of Hong Kong during May 19 – 20, 2018. A publication workshop with the theme "How to Publish in GSA Journals" will be conducted by Professor Laura Sands, GSA's Editor-in-Chief of Innovation in Aging and Dr Rachel Pruchno, Editor-in-Chief of The Gerontologist. The conference expects about 200 attendees.

Conference website: <http://agingconference2018.psy.cuhk.edu.hk>

Online registration is available on the website. Early bird rates are in effect until April 15.

Theme: the Conference will provide a differentiated perspective on individual constructions of old age and aging in different life domains. In combination with the domain-specific approach, this conference will investigate the phenomenon of aging by comparing individuals of different age groups, socio-economic backgrounds, and countries regarding their views on and attitudes towards aging.
