Once upon a time, there was a Magical Kingdom. There lived a King, Queen and a Princess called Infinita. She has three best friends called Fira, Rosa and Starita. The kingdom was full of happiness and joy. But they didn't know there was an evil scheme that had started to form.

One day, when Princess Infinita came back from school, she found out that her mother and father had disappeared. She searched the palace from top to bottom, but she still could not find her parents. She quickly called her friends Starita, Rosa and Fira to come to the palace. She explained what had happened. Then suddenly she broke into tears. Her friends understood how she was feeling and comforted her.

They said, 'we will help you to find the King and Queen and catch the criminal.' They set up an investigation to find clues and witnesses.

Infinita asked all the servants when did they last saw the King and Queen. The waiter said 'I last saw the King and Queen in the dining room. 'But the maid said ' No, it's not true, the waiter is lying the King and Queen were in the guest room.' Then the cleaner said 'No that's not true the King and Queen weren't in the guest room.The King and Queen were in the reading room.'Infinita was very confused.

Infinita told her friends all the information. Then Fira broke the silence, she said'Two of them must be lying. One of them is telling the truth.We have to find out who was lying.'Infinita said'It's impossible.' Starita said, 'don't be so dull, we got your back.Let's solve it together.' Rosa suggested, 'how about we write all the clues out . Maybe that would be easier.' 'Great idea!' said Infinita, while taking her notebook out.

'Infinita who has worked at the palace the most longest?', asked Fira. 'The maid' replied Infinita. 'She has worked many years at the palace. I have trusted her with a lot things.' Suddenly she jumped up from her bed 'Wait that means the maid would not have lied. she has my trust.'

'Perfect! One down two to go.' exclaimed Starita.

Rosa's eyes lit up 'If the maid was right then that means the waiter was lying.' 'Yes! We solved who was lying and where was my mother and father kidnapped.' Infinita said. She clenched her fists and said 'I can't believe that waiter kidnapped my mother and father. I am going to find him and ask him where is mom and dad.' 'Wait!' called Fira. 'If I were the waiter I wouldn't tell you where is the King and Queen.' 'Then what!' Infinita said in frustration.

'Do you have any kind of magic that can hypnotise someone into saying what you want?' Asked Fira. 'I will look in my magic book.' Infinita said while flipping the pages.' I found one!' exclaimed Infinita. 'Perfect! It's teatime now so it won't be suspicious if we go to the dining room.' said Starita. Let's do some hypnotising.' said Rosa.

They quickly found the waiter and Infinita started casting her magic on the waiter. The waiter said 'The King and Queen are in the old dungeon at the west of the palace.'

They quickly found the King and Queen in the dungeon. Infinita quickly casted a spell to make a key to free the King and Queen. Infinita hugged her parents joyfully and explained how did they found them.

The End

I hope you learned the lesson of the story. Trust is very important and never lie. See you at book two .(I have nearly finished written it.)

After the King and Queen had been found, Infinita always had one thing on her mind. Why did the waiter capture her parents on purpose? So as usual she and her friends went to the underground prison to ask the waiter why did he do it. The waiter still did not reply. Infinita tried lots of times the spell of hypnotising on the waiter, but it still did not work.

Suddenly a black sparkly rock fell out of the waiter's pocket the waiter fell down immediately. After Infinita sent the waiter to the dungeon hospital. She and her friends ran back to the palace to give the black sparkly rock to the royal rock inspector.

Princess Infinita was very determined to find out why was that rock in the waiter's pocket? And also what was the rock doing in the Magical Kingdom? It obviously belonged to the other kingdoms. She had too many things on her mind. Her friends calmed her down and reminded her that her birthday was coming tomorrow. It was on the eighteenth of Infinity (the eighteenth of December) 'Maybe you will get your special skill.' Said Rosa hopefully.

What is a special skill? It is the most powerful magic in a fairy. You usually get the special skill when it is the 11th birthday. Everyone's special skill are different.'Maybe' said Infinita.'Let's go to find a secret apartment for us.'said Infinita. 'Why?'asked Fira. 'Because I have been meaning to have one. Let's go to our pavilion.'They arrived at their pavilion.

They sat on their seats. Suddenly their seats sank in to the ground. So did Infinita, Fira, Starita and Rosa. 'Where are we?'asked Fira.'Weren't we at our pavilion just a second ago?' 'I'm not sure, it sure is weird to have some secret underground place under our Pavilion.' replied Infinita. 'Let's look around us to see if there are any clues beside us.'

However, all they saw was a big door. There were elements carved on it.The elements were Infinity, Fire, Star, Rose, Water and Frost. Infinita said' I think the things behind this door is linked to us.' 'Why?' Asked Starita.'Because the element on there match ours.It can't be a coincidence. Nobody has ever had my element.'said Infinita.

'How do we open it?' Asked Fira.
'Maybe we need to touch our own elements on the door.' said Rosa. 'Let's try.' said Infinita excitedly. They did it together and the door shone in gold light then it opened. 'How did you know that?' asked Infinita. 'Just a hunch.' said Rosa while shrugging. They saw six chairs with the elements on the door etched on it.

They also saw seven doors each with a room behind it. However, the thing that surprised them the most was a table with their land projected on it. There was also a giant Infinity sign, glowing with every colour of a rainbow.

They decided to go back to the castle first to ask the royal rock inspector if the report of the black sparkly rock had come out. The report did come out. Here is what it said:

Report on black sparkly rock:

Place: Black Kingdom

Effect: It will make the holder hear whatever the owner says

Harmful

Poisonous

Rare

Only appear in Black Kingdom

'So the waiter did not want to trap the King and Queen.' exclaimed Fira. Infinita said sadly' Now Black Kingdom is gathering its power getting ready to gain land from our Kingdom. They have already started attacking some villages. And I can do nothing about it.'

Night fell, They decided to meet at their pavilion first thing in the morning and go to their apartment to chat about the black sparkly rock and the past of the secret apartment.

On the next day, Infinita woke up early in the morning, because she was excited as it was her birthday. She arrived at their pavilion and found out that her friends were there already. They said good morning to each other. And concentrated on their seats. The chairs sunk to the ground once again. They opened the door and went in. The Infinity sign glowed and sparked, then it shone a beam of light out. The light covered Infinita, then the Infinity sign on Infinita's forehead turned in to every element in the Magical Kingdom.

Fira, Rosa and Starita was so shocked. Their jaws fell down. Meanwhile, Infinita's element sign on her forehead turned into wind, light bolt, medical, time and all the elements. After a while she slowly dropped back on to the ground. Her friends did not move an inch. They were still startled. Infinita waved her hands in front of her friend's eyes. Finally, her friends asked 'Why did you turn into every element in the Kingdom?' 'I don't know too.' Said Infinita.' Maybe that is your special skill!'said Rosa.'Really!' exclaimed Infinita.

'Look!' said Fira,'look at the Infinity sign floating above the table!' They all looked and Fira was right something did happen. A little part of the Infinity sign turned black. Infinita instantly made a communication bubble. A communication bubble will intercept the meaning to the ones in the bubble. After three minutes Infinita closed the bubble. She said' The Infinity sign told me that we have to find two girls which element is water and frost in order to save the Infinity sign from blackening. We have twelve hours to find them. I'll explain everything else on my plane. Everyone pack some things that are needed. Meet each other in seven minutes outside of the palace.'

Seven minutes later, they were in the sky, flying on their alicorns.(Unicorns with wings that can fly.) They each had an alicorn. Infinita's unicorn was called Infinitia. Starita's Stella. Fira's Flamia. Rosa's Rosila. She spoke to her friends, she said' The first girl whose element is water lives beside Water Splash falls.' 'How do we know who is the girl?' Asked Rosa. 'The Infinity sign gave me two necklaces, each with either the element of frost or the element of water.' replied Infinita. 'The Infinity sign told me that if that girl is very close to the necklace it should fly right to her.' 'Did the Infinity sign tell you that why is it blackening?' Asked Fira. 'No, the Infinity sign said it will tell us when we come back.' Said Infinita.

Two hours later they finally arrived at Water Splash Falls.(Which felt a day to Infinita!) They got off their alicorns. They were astonished by the beautiful scenery. Fira broke the silence 'Where is the village?' Her friends stared at her. 'What?' exclaimed Fira. 'Don't tell me that you didn't pay attention to Miss Valley's class! She had told us about this!!!!' said Starita. Fira looked at the ground. 'The valley is under the waterfall!' Said Rosa. 'How do we breathe in the water?' They stared at her again.' Fine, I didn't pay attention to the teacher.' 'Luckily I can turn into every element now. I will turn into the element of water. So that I can let you breathe underwater, without learning it first.' Said Infinita. (It's one of things the element of water can do.)

They dived underwater. It looked like another world. A lot of beautiful fish in a shade of blue swam by and swam away. They could not help themselves but to follow the fishes. At the moment a girl about their age appeared. She had long red hair, a glittering blue top. She was in a short light blue tutu and a pair of sparkling wings flapping behind her back. She also had high heeled shoes with long ribbons in either purple or blue wrapped around her legs with a sort of clothing item that draped behind her like a wave. Starita recognised her 'Hi, Wateria! These fish are gorgeous, We just can't take our eyes off them.' Wateria said 'Stop! Those fish are attractive because we want to stop the outsiders from going into our village.' Infinita, Starita, Fira and Rosa struggled to take their eyes off the fish.'Thanks Wateria.' They chorused. 'Why are you here?' Asked Wateria?

'We're here to...'Infinita broke off. She was staring at the water shaped necklace. It broke out of Infinita's clutches as flew towards Wateria. 'You are the one!' Infinita and her friends exclaimed. 'What?' Rosa explained patiently everything to Wateria. 'That's why you are in the element of water!' Infinita smiled and nodded. All of a sudden, Infinita's Infinity sign on her forehead glowed. Her eyes filled with purple light. She said.....

Infinita went back to normal when she finished. 'Huh?' her friends asked. (Now including Wateria.) 'I don't know what happened.' said Infinita. 'It was like the Infinity sign was using my mouth to say what it wanted to say.' 'Weird!' said Wateria. 'I suppose we have to follow what it says.' suggested Starita. 'Come on. I'll lead the way. I've been there a few times before.' said Wateria. 'Will they welcome us?' asked Rosa anxiously. 'Don't worry I've been there like I said. As long as you follow me. I can turn into a mermaid now because of my special skill.' 'Good!' said Fira. 'We'd better get our alicorns and let them turn into mermicorns. So we can go faster, we only have two hours.' 'Great idea let's go!'
