

In a Dangerous Cave

Once upon time,
there was a boy
who loved
adventures
called Tom.

At a night, Tom discovered a square shape cave
so he brought a flashlight and went into it.

But he didn't realised that there was a dangerous sign near
the cave!

The cave was darker and darker. Suddenly Tom heard some noise, 'Who's there?' shouted Tom.

Then a two eyed
monster came and
stunned him.

When Tom woke up,
he was in a cage and there were many monsters around him. They wanted to eat him!

Luckily Tom grabbed the key and unlock the cage and ran fastest he can.

But the monsters were getting closer and closer. After that Tom saw some sunlight and then the monsters ran into the cave.

Tom used a bomb to destroy the cave and the monsters were all dead.
'Maybe adventure wasn't a good thing at all,' he lowed down his voice.
