News on Selection of Next Director of Divinity School of Chung Chi College (4-12-2013)

Further to the close of application / nomination for Next Director of Divinity School of Chung Chi College in Oct 2013, Search Committee has met with the candidate. Consultation with current full time teachers and the candidate will be arranged on Dec 12. A sharing session on views of theological education by the candidate will be held on Dec 18 at 7:30pm-9:30pm at Chapel of Divinity School of Chung Chi College. While the selection process is still in progress, more information on the candidate will be released soon. This message serves to inform our students, alumni and friends about the time for the sharing session earlier, so that they may reserve time to come. A special Theological Council will be scheduled in late December or early January to decide whether further recommendation will be made. Let us continue to pray for the process.
