Academic Success Workshop (I) – Academic referencing and English learning at CUHK

University students often encounter two problems when writing a report, essay or dissertation - referencing and English writing. It may be a nuisance to cite everything used in your paper but you know you have to do it - and do it the correct way. Completing an assignment in English (either written or spoken) is not easy as well. Without good English, all those brilliant ideas in your mind can't be expressed effectively.

At this workshop, you will be familiarized with two common types of referencing styles - MLA and APA. Knowing the proper way of citation is crucial as plagiarism is something you don't want to be accused of. The speaker will then share with you her experience and some tips on learning English.

Date:	22 September 2014 (Monday)

Venue:	Room 301, Lee Shau Kee Building (LSK)
Target:	Non-local undergraduate and postgraduate students whose mother tongue is not English
