

RESUME

PERSONAL PARTICULARS

Name: LEE Wang, Carina

Telephone: 39437502

E-mail: carinalee@cuhk.edu.hk

WORKING EXPERIENCE

The Chinese University of Hong Kong

Position: Part-time Fieldwork Supervisor in Social Work Department

Job Description

- Provide supervision to undergraduate and master social work students in their placement units

Position: Part-time Instructor in the Hong Kong Institute of Educational Research

- Teach "Professional Certificate Programme in Guidance and Counselling"

Position: Part-time lecturer in Social Work Department

-Teach general education program for undergraduate students

Hospital Authority

- Working as Medical Social Worker in Palliative Care, Geriatrics, Medical and AED settings for 18 years

TEACHING and TRAINING

- Speaker for life and death education in Hong Kong Baptist Theological Seminary
- Speaker for life and death education in The Education University of Hong Kong
- Speaker to newly recruited nurses about support family during illness process through to bereavement in HA
- Speaker for Suicide Prevention Services, sharing the roles of MSW in patients' last journey
- Coordinator and the speaker in 2016 International Symposium for Medical Social Work Professional Development and Practice in Taipei

Qualification

- Fellow in Thanatology (Association for Death Education and Counseling)
- Postgraduate Diploma in End-of-Life Care (CUHK)
- Accredited Assessor of Residential Care Services for People with Disabilities
- Master of Social Sciences in Behavioral Health (HKU)
- Bachelor of Social Sciences, Major in Social Work (CUHK)

LANGUAGE SKILLS

- Proficiency in written and spoken Cantonese, English and Fukienese
- Putonghua (Putonghua Proficiency Test Grade 2)
- Japanese (Japanese-language Proficiency Grade 1)

Scholarship

1999-2000 The Chinese University of Hong Kong, Department/ Programme Scholarship

Outstanding academic performance