

THE CHINESE UNIVERSITY OF HONG KONG
FACULTY OF LAW

The Baker & McKenzie LLB Prize

Terms and Conditions

Baker & McKenzie, Solicitors and Notaries, (“the Donor”) has kindly agreed to donate a sum of $50,000 (“the Prize”) to a student from The Chinese University of Hong Kong with effect from the academic year 2008/09. Regulations governing the award of the Prize are detailed below:

1. The Prize will be known as "The Baker & McKenzie LLB Prize" and in Chinese as 貝克 • 麥堅時獎.
2. A sum of $50,000 shall be awarded. The recipient of the Prize shall be a CUHK full-time LLB student enrolled in Year 3 of the LLB degree.
3. Selection is based on the following:
 - academic merit;
 - other qualities, including leadership and personality; and
 - preference will be given to applicants who plan to graduate from the LLB programme in the academic year following their selection for the Prize.
4. The Prize shall be awarded subject to the student:
 - (a) completing a 4 week summer clerkship with Baker & McKenzie in the calendar year in which he/she is selected to receive the Prize; and
 - (b) if offered, having accepted a solicitor’s traineeship contract with Baker & McKenzie (the contract to commence in the September following the student’s satisfactory completion and passing of the Postgraduate Certificate in Laws (P.C.LL.) programme).
5. The Donor reserves the right to not award the Prize after the selection process.
6. The Donor shall give the University an advance notice prior to the commencement of a new academic year if the Prize is to cease.
