

Contents

Foreword by Professor Chow Shew Ping / xiii

Foreword by Dr Kwan Po Yuen (in English and Chinese) / xv

Preface / xix

Acknowledgements / xxi

I THE WORLD OF MEDICINE

1. A Day in the Life of a Surgeon / 3

2. What is a Surgeon? A Bit of History / 7

3. Medical School / 9

4. The Clinical Years / 15

5. Call Me Doctor / 19

6. Training to be a Surgeon / 25

7. Swinging London / 31

8. Liverpool / 39

9. Murder Most Foul / 45

10. Return to Academe / 49

11. Emergencies / 55

12. Burnout / 65

13. Teacher and Students / 71

II HOME AND HERITAGE

14. Reading, Writing and Arithmetic / 83
15. The World of Books / 87
16. Heritage, Language and Identity / 91
17. Fusion Food: The Ties that Bind / 99
18. Our Furry Friends / 103
19. The Sea, the Sea / 107
20. A Tree Grows in Shouson Hill / 111

III DOCTORS AND PATIENTS

21. Private Practice / 121
22. Limitations in Private Practice / 125
23. The Canossian Sisters and Their Hospital / 131
24. The Reluctant Superintendent / 135
25. The Archbishop / 141
26. The Consul / 145
27. Ho Mui the Fisherwoman / 149
28. Russia: In Search of a New Stapler / 153
29. Sidewalk Consultations and Good Samaritans / 157
30. Doctors as Patients / 161

31. Relatives and Friends / 169
32. Life, Death and Everything Between / 173
33. The Unkindest Cut of All / 181
34. A Personal Crisis / 185
35. Everybody's Little Problem / 189
36. Variations on a Theme of Identity / 195

IV TRANSITION

37. The Surgeon as Counsellor / 203
38. Diet and Wellness / 209
39. The Writing Bug Bites / 215
40. From Scalpel to Spade / 219
41. The Medical Museum Garden / 229
42. The Surgeon/Gardener Link / 233
43. Identity Revealed / 235
44. Nature's Cycle / 239
45. Responsible Living / 243
46. A Day in the Life of a Gardener / 247

Appendix: Sartorial Considerations for the Gardener / 259