CLOVER Closing Ceremony

CLOVER (Community + Local & Overseas students + Volunteers = Everlasting Relationships) is a buddy programme in which local, mainland and overseas students join hands in the provision of community services to the needy people in the society. Re-run in its third year, CLOVER is a project under the I-CARE Programme this year. 70 students were recruited to study local social issues and organize a wide variety of services and activities for newly-arrived children, South Asian minorities, the elderly and the developmentally disabled.

In the closing ceremony of CLOVER, CUHK participants will share their thoughts and study findings. The service clients will also have a chance to perform with the volunteers. Details of the closing ceremony are as follows:

| | | |
|-------|---|--|
| Date | : | 11 April 2012 (Wednesday) |
| Time | : | 2:30 p.m. - 3:30 p.m. |
| Venue | : | LT 1, Esther Lee Building, Chung Chi College |

Student Forum on "3+3+4" Preparation

In anticipation of the implementation of the four-year undergraduate curriculum starting September 2012, the University has stepped up its efforts on all fronts to ensure that there is a smooth transition to the new system. To share with students the University's preparation in various aspects, an open forum will be conducted by the Provost and other staff:

| | | |
|-------|---|---|
| Date | : | 29 March 2012 (Thursday) |
| Time | : | 6:00 p.m. - 7:15 p.m. |
| Venue | : | T.Y. Wong Hall, Ho Sin Hang Engineering Building (to be conducted in Cantonese, supplemented with Putonghua and English as and when necessary) |

You are invited to attend the forum and to offer views and opinions. You may check out the Q and A/video clips afterwards at www.provost.cuhk.edu.hk/prvo/ if you are not available for the forum. Above all, your views are always welcomed to reach the University via email at info.prvo@cuhk.edu.hk.

Earth Hour 2012

At 8:30 p.m. on 31 March 2012, Hong Kong will join other cities across the world to switch off their lights for one hour as an alert to people to take action on climatic change. The University has pledged to participate in this event by switching off the decorative floodlighting at the following locations:

1. Crooked Bridge and Arch Bridge at Lake Excellentiam of Chung Chi College
2. Pavilion of Harmony at New Asia College
3. New Asia and United College Water Towers
4. The lawn outside Adam Schall Residence, the roof garden of TC Cheng Building, the lawn outside Wu Chung Multi-media Library, 1/F podium of Chan Chun Ha Hostel, the signage of Cheung Chuk Shan Amenities Building at United College
5. Herbal Garden, common areas of student hostels at Shaw College
6. Outdoor Garden at Lee Shau Kee Building
7. Satellite Remote Sensing Receiving Station

Your participation is highly encouraged. Let's join in this action to save energy and help protect our environment!

The 2011/12 Survey of Drug Use among Students

The Narcotics Division of the Security Bureau is conducting the "Survey of Drug Use among Students" in 2011/12 school year and has commissioned Consumer Search, an independent marketing research consultancy company, to look after the execution of the Survey.

The objective of the Survey is to understand students' knowledge of and attitude towards the use of alcohol, tobacco and drugs. You are sincerely invited to participate in this study. The information collected will provide critical input to assist the HKSAR Government in focusing on anti-drug education, research and rehabilitation services.

All the information in this Survey will remain anonymous. Any individual's details will not be disclosed or identifiable from this Survey. To enter the Survey's website, please refer to the mass e-mail sent to you by the Office of Student Affairs on 16 March 2012 entitled "The 2011/12 Survey of Drug Use among Students".

If you have any questions, please call the dedicated project hotline at 2591 3514 from Monday to Friday, between 9:00 a.m. to 5:30 p.m.
