

Research Postgraduate Programme (RPg)
– Articulated M.Phil.-Ph.D. Programme in Japanese Studies

Prof. Ho Chi Ming

Graduate Division Head and Deputy Chair
Associate Professor

Japanese Studies, CUHK

Overview

- Started in 2014
- About 2-4 places per year with full scholarship
- Outstanding students can also apply for HK Ph.D. fellowship
- For academically well-prepared students
- M.Phil or Ph.D Program

- Fields of specialization:
  - Japanese society and culture, gender studies, Japanese history, Japanese popular culture, Japanese linguistics, history of Sino-Japanese relations, Japan-Hong Kong relations
- Supervisors of Ph.D. students: Ben Ng, Lynne Nakano, Chi-Ming Ho, Jeremy Yellen
- Supervisors of M.Phil students: all professors
- Deadlines:
  - 1 December 2021 (Main Round);
  - 31 March 2022 (Clearing Round: Applications will only be considered subject to availability of unfilled places)

Basic Requirements

- A Bachelor's degree from a recognized university (second honor or above) or a Master's degree
- English proficiency
- Application form
- Two recommendation letters

Department's Requirements

- Research proposal (5 pages in English)
- Up to two academic writing sample(s) in English/Chinese/Japanese (if any)
- Japanese proficiency may apply
- Interview for shortlisted candidates

Tuition Waiver Scheme (By Government)

- Starting from the 2018-19 academic year
- For LOCAL FULL-TIME RPg students enrolled in UGC-funded RPg programmes
- For entire normative study period

Other Alternatives

- Self-funded M.Phil (full-time or part-time)
- Self-funded Ph.D program (full-time or part-time)
- HK$42,100 per annum regardless of the study mode

GO FOR IT !

GOOD LUCK !