

The Chinese University of Hong Kong
English Language Teaching Unit
English Across the Curriculum (EAC)

THE ELTU'S 3RD ANNUAL CREATIVE WRITING COMPETITION 2022

TERMS AND GUIDELINES

1. Entrants must be current students at the Chinese University of Hong Kong. Undergraduate and postgraduate students from all faculties and programs are encouraged to enter their work.
2. All entries must directly or indirectly respond to the current theme, “Awakening”.
3. All entries must be received by 11:59 PM on 25 April 2022.
4. An entrant may only submit one piece per prose category (short story and creative nonfiction) and a maximum of two poems in the poetry category.
5. Word count: Prose submissions are limited to a maximum of 1500 words (excluding title) and poetry submissions are limited to a maximum of two poems.
6. An entrant may choose to submit to more than one category.
7. An entry may not be altered after submission.
8. Every piece must have a title.
9. Entries must be written in English.
10. Entries must be original work. Any form of plagiarism will disqualify the entry.
11. Entries should not have been previously published, whether online or in print (including self-publishing on a blog).
12. Entries from the previous rounds of the ELTU's creative writing competition will not be accepted.
13. There is no submission or reading fee to enter the competition.
14. All entries will be reviewed by a professional judging panel who will determine the winners. The judges' decisions are final.

15. The competition organizers reserve the right to change the judging panel without notice.
16. All entries are judged anonymously. The entrant's identification information, including name and student number, will not be included on the piece(s) for the final review. The judging panel will not have access to the accompanying submission forms. For confidentiality purposes, please remove all identification information from all entries.
17. First place winners will each receive $1000 in book vouchers and finalists will each receive $250 in book vouchers.
18. First place winners, finalists, and honorable mention recipients will be published in the competition anthology. Selected entries will be subject to being edited upon publication in the anthology.
19. If applicable, entries may also be selected to be published in Figment: The ELTU's Online Literary Journal, should they adhere to the journal's current theme. Selected entries will be subject to being edited upon publication in the journal.
20. Entrants will be notified of the results after the judging period has concluded.
21. The ELTU reserves the right to use the competition submissions for the English Across the Curriculum (EAC) project purposes.
22. All personal data and information collected will be used for EAC administration purposes only and will not be disclosed to any third parties.

We look forward to receiving your entries!