

Contents

Preface	ix
Part I Liminary Essays
1. The PEACE Mission Statement Kab Kyung CHO	1
2. The Imperative of Grounding Phenomenology on Tradition: An East-Asian Perspective Kab Kyung CHO	5
3. Complex Cultural Traditions Elmar HOLENSTEIN	47
Part II Identity, Alterity, and Cultural Traditions: Phenomenological Approaches
4. On the Transcendental Phenomenological Essence of Identity, Alterity, and Cultural Tradition Burt C. HOPKINS	65
5. “Asia” as Subject? —Towards a Phenomenological Analysis of Self-alienation Shigeto NUKI	79
6. Critical Rationality and Problems of Cultural Traditions Nam-In LEE	87
7. Identity and Alterity: Schutz and Husserl on the Phenomenology of Intersubjectivity Shinji HAMAUZU	99
8. Appresentation and Cultural Difference Chung-Chi YU	113
9. Transcendental Phenomenology of Intersubjectivity in the Life-world: A Therapeutic Suggestion to the Problem of Identity and Alterity from the Indian Philosophical Viewpoint Eun-Joo LEE	125

10. Beyond Identity and Alterity? —From Heidegger’s Viewpoint Wen-Sheng WANG	139
11. The Other, the I, and the Enigma of Society: From Durkheim through Levinas to Husserl and Heidegger Ping-Keung LUI	155
12. Living-with-one-another: Phenomenological and Ethical Considerations Concerning the Question of Inter-existential Recognition Hans-Helmuth GANDER	169
13. Between Myself and Others: Towards a Phenomenology of the Experience of Love Chan-Fai CHEUNG	181
14. From Cultural Skin to Cultural Therapeutics: Body, Alterity, and Media Image Experience Jow-Jiun GONG	193
Part III The Phenomenological Tradition and Its Others
15. The Other of the Phenomenological Tradition Lester EMBREE	209
16. Husserl, Buddhism, and the Problematic of the Crisis of European Sciences Kwok-Ying LAU	221
17. The Phenomenological Stratification of Husserl’s “ Idee ” and Lao Tzu’s “ Tao ” Xianghong FANG	235
18. Universal Goods, Cultural Specificity John J. DRUMMOND	247
19. Towards a Phenomenology of Pronouns Tze-Wan KWAN	259
20. The Multi-dimensionality of Colours Junichi MURATA	281

21. Technological Artifacts and Intentionality: Toward a Phenomenology of Technology Kohji ISHIHARA	297
22. Resisting the “Closure” of Nietzsche Shunsuke KADOWAKI	309
23. Prolegomena to a Phenomenology of the Meaning of Human Life in the Late Essays of Jan Patočka Ivan CHVATÍK	319
24. The Problem of the Tacit Cogito in Merleau-Ponty’s Phenomenology of Perception Wai-Shun HUNG	337
25. Heidegger’s Concept of solus ipse and the Problem of Intersubjectivity Peter HA	351
26. Heidegger’s Conception of Faith in His Phenomenology and Theology Wei WANG	367
Contributors	373