6. Red Banner Writing with Resident Tutors 宿舍活動 - 狗年吉祥揮春

Writing red banners and tasting traditional Chinese New Year snacks brought not only fun but also a sense of reunion in the College hostels. 7. Fun Fun Chinese New Year by College International Team

The Chinese New Year is coming and it is a very important and traditional festival for Chinese to reunite with family members and relatives. Therefore, the International Team and the College organized Fun Fun Chinese New Year on 8th Feb in the Wu Yee Sun College Staff Canteen to celebrate the Festival with our College students together. Participants included local, exchange and international students.

The staff canteen was decorated with Chinese lanterns and red banners. Participants also learnt how to write Chinese red banners using regular and seal script. During the event, students from different regions shared how Chinese New Year / New Year is celebrated in their hometown. They also taught each other how to say the blessings in various languages and imitated the practice of giving and receiving red packets. Apart from that, participants had fun guessing the English riddles hung under the lantern and had the chance to taste some traditional Chinese food for celebration of Chinese New Year. For example, they tried rice cake, turnip cake, sesame balls, crispy pastry dumpling and some sweets in the candy tray while at the same time learning the meaning of eating them.

Hello! We are AIESEC in CUHK, an international youth-run organization aiming to develop youth leadership.

YouthSpeak forum is a place where youth can interact with people from all walks of life, to inspire and discuss with one another. Our YouthSpeak Forum is arranged to inspire the delegates through power talks and keynote speakers. We want to open the minds of delegates to think differently and spark new innovations.

The theme for this year's forum is LGBT equality (SDG #5 and #10). We always question ourselves: Apart from changing our profile pictures into rainbow flags, what more can youth do for LGBT equality? Are the power of youth so limited? Therefore, we are honoured to have invited few guests who are active and passionate in this field to share their opinions. Through the forum, we aspire to reach several solutions or ways we can contribute for LGBT development in Hong Kong.
