1. Professional Learning Scheme in Shanghai 上海專業研習計劃

The three-week Professional Learning Scheme in Shanghai was successfully held thanks to the collaboration with Zhide College of Fudan University (復旦大學志德書院), The Peninsula Shanghai (上海半島酒店), Tencent (騰訊), Sand Bankcard-link Information and Service Company Limited (杉德銀卡通資訊服務有限公司) and Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Au (區文中伉儷).

The journey began with the cultural exchange at Fudan University, focusing on mini-study on community enhancement of Nanjing Road East (南京東路社區改善研究). Students of our College and Zhide College were split in two groups to conduct field trip for the research. Our College students also visited Qidong (啓東), which had prosperous development in fisheries and supported the industrial production for Shanghai.

Led by College Associate Master Professor Kam-fai Wong (副院長黃錦輝教授), the professional attachment at The Peninsula Shanghai, Tencent and Sand Bankcard-link Information and Service Company Limited brought fruitful experiences to students as well. Students had a close look at the corporate operation as well as their service standards. On top of observation, they engaged in mini-study to research on the topics related to the industry or offer proposals for business improvement.

To strengthen the networking skills of the students, Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Au generously hosted a meeting with young entrepreneurs in Shanghai for them. The roundtable discussions with mainland professionals and entrepreneurs from Hong Kong and Italy who worked in Shanghai gave students different perspectives on working in China. Sharing from professional investor of venture capital then inspired students with the latest trend of economic development in China.

A deeper understanding to the socio-cultural and economic landscape of Shanghai sheds light on students' career and personal development. The proactive attitude, eagerness to connect with others and open mind they have been learning will eventually lead them to success.
