1. Spanish Language and Culture Study Tour

15 Sunnies went to Malaga, Spain for 2 weeks to learn Spanish and experienced Spanish culture. They attended Spanish language course in the morning and visited places in Malaga such as the Picasso Museum. Participants were divided into small groups and lived with host families, aiming at encouraging them to apply and practise what they have learnt in class and polishing their oral skills.

With the guidance and support from Miss Maria Consuelo Vega Leon, College Member and Assistant Lecturer at the Department of Linguistics and Modern Languages, all participants had a better understanding of Spanish culture and lifestyle. It was also a journey of personal growth since participants had to overcome cultural shock and managed to live with a foreign family with lots of cultural differences and surprises.

3. Live Broadcast of 2018 FIFA World Cup Final and College Dinner Gathering

A group of College students, alumni and staff members gathered at the College on 15th July to watch the Live Broadcast of World Cup Final. The chit-chat and delicious buffet prior to the broadcast mingled both teachers and students, as well as created an exciting atmosphere before the match. Professor Anthony T.C. Chan (陳德章教授), College Master, Professor Kelvin K.F. ### 4. Summer Camp with CUHKFAA Chan Chun Ha Secondary School 薪火相傳－香港中文大學校友會聯會暑期生活營

The Summer Camp with CUHKFAA Chan Chun Ha Secondary School (香港中文大學校友會聯會陳震夏中學) brought our student mentors and a group of Secondary 5 students together to reflect their life journey.

A group of medical students organized a workshop about mental well-being and led a visit to Dissecting Laboratory (解剖實驗室) to learn life and death education from Silent Teachers (無言老師). Dr. Po-kin Leung (梁寶建博士), College Associate Dean of Students and Lecturer at the Department of Physics, then delivered a fascinating lecture about life in universe.

The discussion on post-life and extra-terrestrial life let participants reflect their perspectives towards present life. Our student mentors took the chance to share their challenges and experiences with the secondary students. It does not matter if you try and fail, but it does matter if you try and fail, and fail to try again. It is essential to identify one's own strengths and weaknesses. The interview workshop was an ideal opportunity to achieve such purpose. The leadership training tasks, on the other hand, gave the participants a chance to learn to be a better team player to support others to move on.

To summarize their reflections in the camp, they visualized their pursuit of dreams through silhouette. It could be trivia about family. It could also be creating a better society. Be it small or big, the participants gave a deeper thought to their life. The showing of a warm video with photos capturing memorable moments in the camp touched many hearts, which made a sweetest finale of the camp.

Our heartfelt thanks again for the student mentors and hope to see the secondary students join our College soon!

Professor Kong-pang Pun (潘江鵬教授), College Fellow and Warden of Student Hostel West Block, gave a presentation on behalf of the College on the College's role in cultivating students' creativity and the drive for innovation. He then joined hands with Ms. Sandy P.S. Lee (李珮珊女士), College Secretary and Warden of Student Hostel East Block to lead a College tour for Forum participants.
