

Bio

- Jacky Tsang graduated from the business school of the Chinese University of Hong Kong. He is a financial management professional with extensive work experience in the financial services industry. Starting his career as a bank trainee and then joining a Big 4 accounting firm, he has solid knowledge in accounting and taxation. Spending 20 years in sell side and buy side of the capital market, Jacky held key management roles from back office to front office of leading Chinese investment banks, and was also a partner of hedge fund in the buy side.
- Jacky is a professional accountant and chartered financial analyst, CFA. He served the board of directors of CFA Hong Kong and Hong Kong Securities Associations for more than 10 years.
- Jacky is pragmatic as to be eager to apply what he learned to daily life. He is a professional investor in properties, equities and wines.