About the Strive and Rise Programme

The Chief Secretary for Administration leads an inter-departmental task force that runs the Strive and Rise Programme through tripartite collaboration between the Government, the business sector and the community. It aims to support junior secondary school students from underprivileged families in a targeted manner to broaden their horizons, reinforce their self-confidence, develop a positive outlook on life, set goals for their future and strive for upward mobility. The Programme's first phase lasts for one year and has admitted 2,800 mentees.
