Association of China-Appointed Attesting Officers Scholarships

Regulations

Association of China-Appointed Attesting Officers (the “Donor”) has been donating two scholarships annually to the students of the Faculty of Law of The Chinese University of Hong Kong (“CUHK LAW”) since the academic year 2011-12. The total amount of the two scholarships has been increased from HK$20,000 to HK$40,000 since 2017-18. With effect from the academic year 2020-21, the regulations governing the award of the scholarships are as follows:

1. The two scholarships shall be known as the “Association of China-Appointed Attesting Officers Scholarships”.
2. The amount of each scholarship is HK$20,000.
  - (i) One scholarship of HK$20,000 shall be awarded to a Mainland student (i.e. PRC ID cardholder) enrolled in the full-time Master of Laws in Common Law (LCL) programme. The Donor will conduct a seminar for all LCL students who intend to apply for the scholarship. No student may apply for the scholarship unless he/she has attended the seminar.
  - (ii) One scholarship of HK$20,000 shall be awarded to a Hong Kong permanent resident enrolled in the full-time Postgraduate Certificate in Laws (PCLL) programme. The Donor will conduct a seminar for all PCLL students who intend to apply for the scholarship. No student may apply for the scholarship unless he/she has attended the seminar.
3. Selection of the above scholarships will be based on the following criteria:
  - Academic achievements in LCL/PCLL studies.
  - Performance at the seminar conducted by the Donor.
  - Other qualities as the Donor may consider appropriate.
4. Selection will be made by the Donor. Scholarship will be announced in August for the LCL programme and the PCLL programme.
5. If in any year the Donor considers that no candidate is qualified for the scholarship, no award shall be made.
6. The Donor shall notify CUHK LAW prior to the beginning of an academic year about any intention to change the Regulations or discontinue the Scholarships.
