Dr. Lily Fenn Prizes for Legal Technologies

Regulations

The Dr. Lily Fenn Education Foundation Limited (the “Donor”) will kindly donate prizes to the Faculty of Law of The Chinese University of Hong Kong (“CUHK LAW”) with effect from the academic year 2021-22. Regulations governing the award of the Prizes are detailed below:

1. The Prizes will be known as “Dr. Lily Fenn Prizes for Legal Technologies”.
2. There are three annual Prizes worth of a total HK$30,000:
 - (i) One Prize of HK$10,000 shall be awarded to a student enrolled in the Bachelor of Laws programme of CUHK LAW who achieves the highest overall mark in the course LAWS3456 Legal Technologies in an academic year.
 - (ii) One Prize of HK$10,000 shall be awarded to a student enrolled in the Juris Doctor programme or the Master of Laws programme of CUHK LAW who achieves the highest overall mark in the course LAWS6089 Legal Technologies in an academic year.
 - (iii) One Prize of HK$10,000 shall be awarded to a student enrolled in the Postgraduates Certificate in Laws programme of CUHK LAW who achieves the highest overall mark in the course LAWS5025 Legal Practice and Technology in an academic year.
3. In each academic year, the Dean of CUHK LAW will select qualified candidate(s) for each Prize. The particulars of the Prize recipients will be sent to the Office of Admissions and Financial Aid for onward transmission to the Donor for confirmation.
4. Each Prize recipient may also be offered an internship or solicitor’s traineeship contract with Lily Fenn & Partners, Solicitors and Notaries, in Hong Kong.
5. If in any year more than one student achieves the highest overall mark in a course specified in (i), (ii) and (iii) above, the Prize(s) shall be divided equally among these students.
6. In the event that any of the courses LAWS3456 Legal Technologies, LAWS6089 Legal Technologies and LAWS5025 Legal Practice and Technology are not offered in an academic year, no Prize will be awarded in that year.
7. The Donor shall notify CUHK LAW prior to the beginning of an academic year about any intention to change the Regulations or discontinue the Prizes.
