Baker & McKenzie Scholarship for JD Students

Regulations

Baker & McKenzie (“the Donor”) will donate a scholarship to The Chinese University of Hong Kong on an annual basis starting from the academic year 2006 - 2007. Regulations governing the award of the scholarships are detailed below:

1. The scholarship will be known as "The Baker & McKenzie Scholarship for JD students" and in Chinese as 貝克·麥堅時獎學金 (the “Scholarship”).
2. One Scholarship in the sum of $50,000 shall be awarded. The recipient of the award (the “Scholar”) shall be a first year full-time JD student of the Faculty of Law. Selection will be based on the following:
 - academic merit as shown in their first degree;
 - academic merit as shown in the JD programme;
 - other qualities, including leadership and personality; and
 - preference will be given to applicants who plan to graduate from the JD programme in the academic year following their selection for the Scholarship.
3. The Scholarship shall be awarded subject to the following conditions, namely, that:
 - the Scholar shall have completed a clerkship programme with Baker & McKenzie in the calendar year in which he/she is selected to receive the Scholarship;
 - the Scholar shall have accepted an offer of, and shall undertake, a solicitor’s traineeship contract with Baker & McKenzie, the contract to commence in the September following the Scholar’s completion of the Postgraduate Certificate in Laws (PCLL) programme.
4. In any year when no candidate is of sufficient merit, no award shall be made.
