8. S'port Amnesty

<The message is drafted by the organizer>

Equality and respect for diversity are core values of human rights and sports. Not only do athletes face the pain of injuries, pressure from opponents and fear of losing, they are also threatened by racial segregation, exclusion of women and discrimination against minority grounds in sports.

We believe that human rights, like sports, should not be the luxury of a select few.

With the support of Wu Yee Sun College, "S'port Amnesty" – an event in collaboration with Amnesty International, will have activities like running on the treadmill, rowing on the rowing machine and cycling on the cycle ergometer to raise awareness of the issues faced when our rights and feelings are suppressed.

Date: Thursday, 7th April 2016
 Time: 7:00-9:30pm
 Location: Wu Yee Sun College Gym
 FREE ENTRY!
 There will be prizes for the winners!

Come join our event S'port Amnesty and learn more about us! Dress in yellow to support our cause. The best dressed will also get a prize!
