1. A Memorable Day - The College 1st Graduation Ceremony marks successful conclusion

On 17th November 2016, more than 150 graduates and their family members attended the College Graduation Ceremony. As the 1st Graduation Ceremony in the history of Wu Yee Sun College, the day was to embrace joy and success, not only for the graduates and their families, but also for the guests and friends of the College.

Joined with more than 50 college members and guests, the graduation day kicked off with a simple ceremony unveiling the graduates plaque in the Central Courtyard by College Overseers, Mr. Albert Wu (伍步昌先生) and Mr. Arthur Wu (伍尚宗先生), together with College Master, Professor Rance P.L. Lee (李沛良教授) and the College graduate cum representative of the College Alumni Association Preparatory Committee, Mr. Sam L.H. Cheung (張力行先生). The plaque engraving the names of all the graduates commemorates the achievement of our college students.

The ceremony began with the procession making their way to the ceremonial ground, followed with an opening address by Professor Lee, who welcomed the guests and praised the students for their accomplishment. Overseeing his first Graduation Ceremony in his capacity as the College Master, Professor Lee encouraged our graduates to pursue their dreams with passion and perseverance, and always go the extra mile to get a work done without seeking a return.

Professor Lee then invited the Guest of Honor, Mr. Stanley H.C. Hui, JP (許漢忠太平紳士), Deputy CEO of NWS Holdings Limited, to give a speech to the audience. Mr. Hui reminded our graduates to reflect constantly on what they have learned at Wu Yee Sun College and to think about what they could contribute to the common good of Hong Kong as well as the country apart from building a successful career for themselves.

Following the addresses, the students were invited to receive their certificates and graduation souvenirs. The ceremony then concluded with a valedictorian speech from our student speaker, Mr. Sam L.H. Cheung, who spoke about the college's achievement in the past four years, and the challenges ahead as the graduates move onto the next stage of their life.

The College would like to extend congratulations and thanks to all those who attended for making the graduation an enjoyable and memorable day.
