

The Zombie World

By : Kelly

Once upon a time, there were some unknown virus which made humans into zombies so there were a lots of zombies in the world.

The zombies rushed into the school, all the teachers and students became zombies but Tom and Jack didn't. They sneaked back to their home with their mobile phone.

They picked something that could fight the zombies as fast as they could and they head back to the school to fight the zombies.

When they killed the zombies, someone was watching them without them knowing.

Suddenly, a big, dirty zombie boss came. Tom and Jack were so scared. But they still fought it. Their power wasn't strong enough to kill it. Tom and Jack were injured.

The big zombie boss caught them and tried to eat them, but it suddenly froze. 'Why the boss died?' Tom asked.

'I don't know,' Jack said. They looked around and saw a man with a gun.
'Who are you?' Tom and Jack asked.
'Oh! I am Kenny, a deer hunter. Don't be angry at me. I helped you, you should be thankful for me,' Kenny said

'Oh, I know. You kill the dirty boss?' asked Jack. 'Yep, it is me. I use my gun to kill it,' Kenny said. 'Oh! Thank you for helping us. But why are you still alive?' Tom and Jack asked.

'I use my gun to kill zombies so I am still alive,' Kenny replied. Just then, all the zombies returned to be human beings. They all cheered together and lived happily.

But... Tom's baseball bat was full of zombies blood. Just then, someone's dog licked the blood and the dog started becoming a zombie dog. Tom and Jack quickly ran to a laboratory to find a scientist.

'Ummm..... It is a new virus and this virus is more fatal than the last one. The scientist said. 'What can we do now? Fight again?' asked Jack.

'Ummm... yes,' the scientist said. 'Ohhhhhh nooooo!' Jack cried with a lot of sadness. Tom and Jack ran back to the town and they were surprised! The zombie dog is kind. Although it was a little bit scary, it was kind. It didn't bite or bark anyone.

'Although this dog is kind, it will die quickly,' said Tom sadly. 'Oh dear. My sweetie,' Jack said to the dog.

Two days later, the dog died. The people in the town made a grave to memorialize it and on the thirteenth of March, all the people commemorated the kind zombie dog.
