

Adventure at the zoo

By Ayako Komine

It's finally zoo day students are sooo excited they can hardly sit! The teacher finally said We are getting on the bus. Students were now punching there hands in the air. Everyone was excited except Alice I am not sure how she feels like but she's biting her nails.

Once they got off, Izzy ran away. Then the teacher screamed and asked the bus driver to drive the other students back to school. Oh my the teacher checked everywhere but she is nowhere to be found. Ok maybe she didn't ask everyone to go back cause Elze stayed. Elze saw her teacher and the staff talking.
Izzy..... secret place..... time travel machine..... dinosaur. Next minute they went to a trapdoor and opened it there were a machine in it! They held hands pressed a button and disappeared.....

First she thought for a while then she decided to go and help them if they need help. She did the same thing they did press the button but she had to do it alone just didn't hold hands. She suddenly fell down and felt that there were dirt on her pants. She saw the teacher and the staff they were talking about something she heard everything they said this time they said that 1334 might have found out about this machine and that she might be somewhere nearby or she is exploring the forest.

Suddenly the teacher stopped talking with the professors at the staffs and they certainly had some people stepping on some a stick and they got startled and looked back they thought it was a T-Rex or a dinosaur and they stepped backwards and ran off Elziel

Will Elze didn't notice it until she heard a neigh it came from apeegasus. I rescued her than the teacher noticed and said why are you here you should be watching the animals instead. Else felt a bit guilty but instead said why should I stay there it's a bit borin... umm nothing. Just then the Pegasus interrupted them and made Elze sit on it and it flew away towards the sky.

It brought her to a oasis that were inside a cave?! Then elze drank some water from it and sank her feet in the water. The unicorn suddenly started talking which startled Elze it said I know where your friend is but a dinosaur is keeping here because it's lonely. Elze felt a tingle in her feeling. Can I meet it Elze asked but it shook its head. It explained that even the unicorn is scared of it.

It explained that it was the smartest but most lonely dinosaur and don't forget that it was also the most scary looking dinosaur around. It was so smart that some dinosaur calls him the lord. Elze was scared but knew she had to save Izzy so she decided to meet the dinosaur.

THE SCARIEST DINOSAUR

Elze was scared but she knew she had to save Izzy but decided to go and see that dinosaur tomorrow. The more she thought of it the more sceptical. The more she thought of it the more scared she got so she decided to go sleep. The next day she went after she took a step she remembered that she forgot to tell the unicorn that she was going.

Then she remembered that the unicorn was scare off it and will try stop her. A star shot from the sky to her then the voice of the uniorn came from it it said I know were you are going come back at once. She then saw that there were some black things in it she knew what that meant :dark magic. She ran away from the bubble and into the deep dark forest again but luckily she saw Izzy she walked up to the dinosaur and shouted until her eyeballs popped out.

It was startled and Startled so it dropped Izzy. After he dropped her he responded to Elze sorry I was just lonely and found her so I played with her I am so sorry I will let your friend go. Elze and Izzy happily walked out of the forest time traveled with there teacher and the staffs. When they got back Elze and Izzy learned something even the largest can be the softest at heart.
