LIFE ELEVATED

THE TRAITOR

OF THE

DETECTIVES

BY SA ADRIAN WONG

"Oh, that Detective Ivanore. The best car driver and detective in Utah" Said Diablo to Hellhound.

"Nope. We will get that bank robbed, and outrun Ivanore." Disagreed Hellhound. It was August in Utah and Hellhound was discussing a plan to rob a bank without provoking Detective Ivanore, the best driver and detective in town. Hellhound and Diablo the crime gang members had just paid tons of money to another crime gang to buy the new Viper ZX and now they are broke.

Meanwhile, Alex knocked on Ivanore's door. He was joining the detective. "Come in." Said Ivanore. "And fill in this application form." He said as he handed Alex a piece of paper with a lot of blanks written on it. One of the words were "name". Alex took out his pen and scribble something into the paper. After a while, Ivanore told him to join the rest of his crew. "This is Alex. Detective Alex. He is the newest crew in the Utah Detective Station." Explained Ivanore. Some girl detectives looked at Ivanore in awe, as the best detective wrote neat and nice words on the whiteboard when they discussed their works.

However, Alex wasn't listening. All he could hear was Ivanore saying "Blah Blah Blah". He didn't think he needed to listen to the plan. He was thinking something off, like the car stunt cartoons he used to watch when he was young, three years old.

After a long wait for Alex, Ivanore thankfully finished his words. "Now, go out and investigate the Utah Mine. There is news that some mysterious figures are killing everyone there." Announced Ivanore.

The detectives soared out of the Detective Station after a loud VROOM.

No one knew Ivanore were on his Challenger Hellcat TX, by his computer. He used his radar to scan their actions since bad incident only happens when the investigators were around.

The experienced detective was right, two distress calls arrived at Ivanore's monitor. Two investigators got pushed into a canyon's edge by

Two investigators got pushed into a canyon's edge by a mysterious figure. Later, two more mysterious figure bumped the investigators into the deep canyon. Now three mysterious figure were involved in a murderer incident. A nearly-dead detective said the name of one of the mysterious figure's names on the distress call. Just when he was about to say something, he passed out.

Back in Ivanore's car, the name of one of the mysterious figure matched the one in Ivanore's head. He still didn't know the other two mysterious figure's name, so he decided to investigate the mine himself. He ignited the engine of his car and head to the mine.

Once he got to the entrance, he loaded his rifle and use laser vision instead of headlights to go in, so the mysterious figures couldn't see them. And he was right. The mysterious figure couldn't see them. But he also couldn't see very well, much to Ivanore's annoyance. Inside, Detective Alex was working with Hellhound and Diablo, the two crime gang members. Alex as a traitor! Alex is betraying the detectives!

Ivanore revved his car's engine to alarm the crooks and quickly reverse to get out of the mine before the crooks can kill him. He then waited for the crooks to get out, who were attempting to ram Ivanore, but was unsuccessful.

Knowing they will get arrested, they stepped on the gas pedal and fled, with Ivanore right on their tail. The crooks tried to lead them to Matrix Freeway, where they think they can lose Ivanore due to the many cars on the freeway. Unfortunately for them, there weren't many cars there, so they went for plan B - reach their full speed and outrun Ivanore. The thing they didn't know is Ivanore had the same top speed as theirs, so it doesn't do anything. They did a loop around the city fountain after leaving Matrix Freeway.

They then arrived at a village. It looks like the police chief seems to know there was a car chase going on. He ordered his fellow crew to get in their Charger KP, and surprisingly it also got the same top speed than the crooks and Ivanore's car.

They left the village and they chase across the orange Utah. Diablo realised that they can't outrun the skilled Ivanore, so they called the rest of the crime gang and the crime gang that sold the Viper ZX. Within seconds, the crime gang members, Sweeper, Falcon, Black Widow, Hunter, Johnny, Savage, Rebel and Alpha arrived.

The convoy of crooks made a U-turn and head for the Utah Mine once more. They split up and entered different entrances. Ivanore got the map from Mayor Dark Oak, so navigating wasn't a problem for the detectives. Unfortunately, it seems like the crooks can navigate without help. Well, apart from their brains. They chase through the dust and dirt and no one got an advantage. Sweeper's truck wasn't big enough to get stuck, Falcon's muscle car was making too much dust, Black Widow was too fast, Hunter's car was to strong to die. Johnny's car's colour is brown, which can blend in the mine. Savage and Rebel were shooting the detectives and Alpha went in a maze-like path, making it harder to stop his car. Only Alex, Hellhound and Diablo were outside the mine.

"Hey, traitor-of-the-detectives, do you want to be the traitor-of-the-detectives-become-friends-with-rival?" Teased Diablo.

"Oh, just shut up and be quiet!" Said Alex, embarrassed.

They were just outside the mine, helping Alex to steal cars and change his old one to avoid the detectives from seeing them. Hellhound and Diablo, however, didn't want to change cars, as they spent millions buying the gateway car. Robbing a bank wasn't an option, because they don't have time. They spent time chatting, discussing plans to do crimes. While they were laughing, Ivanore and his detectives got out of the mines, with their suspect's car tied up on tow trucks. The crooks were also captured, in the reinforced jeep behind Ivanore. They blocked the confused trio on all sides.

"Well done chaps, we caught the two dangerous criminals. Oh, and look who it was!" Ivanore said proudly as he winked at Alex. "It's the traitor-of-the-detectives-become-friends-with-rival!"

"Just shut up and be quiet....." Mumbled Alex, as he was forced to put up his hand and walk towards the reinforced jeep.

"That Ivanson was insane!" Said Hunter in the jeep. "How did he arrest us?"

"The name is Ivanore, not 'Ivanson'" Said Ivanore.

"Well, all right, not Ivanore, Ivanson. It's that it?" Hunter questioned.

Ivanore ignored him.

"Soooooo, how did they arreeeeeeesst us, brooooooos?" Said Alpha. "They arreeeeeeesst me because they raaamed meeee and I craashed into the wall."

"They tricked me into a smaller part of the mine and I got stuck." Sweeper said.

"Same." Said Falcon. "They tricked me to do a roundabout and I got lost in my dust"

"They tricked me too." Black Widow said. "They tricked me to a dead end and I crashed in high speed."

"They use a Rocket Propelled Grenade to blow up my car," Hunter said. "I don't know Ivanson had weapons." Everyone looked at him.

"There is no way they have laser vision" Exclaimed Johnny. "They tracked me and surrounded me."

"Savage and I shoot him, but they used a bouncy shield to block our bullets and reflected them to us" Rebel said, with his brain cells losing due to Ivanore's nonsense weapons.

Ivanore replied, "Now you all know,"

NOTHING CAN STOP LAWS
