A. COURSE DESCRIPTION

If you are curious about the essence of Christianity and seeking a course that covers its fundamentals, this is the perfect choice for you. This course delves into the cultural, social, political, and spiritual facets of Christianity, spanning its inception through to the dawn of the Reformation. The primary objective is to provide a historical overview of the early church's evolution, followed by an examination of the Roman church's development. Simultaneously, students are encouraged to explore the lived experiences of early and medieval Christians, as well as investigate other Christian traditions. While Latin Christianity serves as a central focus, the course emphasizes Christianity as a diverse and global religion that manifests in various contextual forms. By engaging with this rich tapestry of perspectives, students will gain a deeper understanding of the multifaceted nature of early and medieval Christianity.

D. ASSIGNMENTS AND ASSESSMENT SCHEME

1. Reading Challenge 閱讀挑戰 (20% of final grade)

Throughout this course, you are expected to engage with the assigned and suggested readings from the course outline. It is important to note that you are not required to read all assigned texts; instead, by reading on a weekly basis, you will accumulate experience points (XP) that will contribute to your overall course grade. You will earn 4 XP for each page of English literature and 2.5 XP for each page of Chinese literature within the scope of this course. For every 50 XP accumulated, you will receive 1 mark.

To monitor your progress and engagement with the course material, you are required to maintain a weekly reading log. Please submit this log to the instructor at the beginning of each class session. The scope of your weekly reading is entirely up to you, but it should be relevant to the course content and drawn from the readings listed in the course outline or the ‘Reading Lists for Special Topic Presentation and Term Paper’. During class, the instructor may randomly select students to share insights from their weekly readings and participate in a brief, informal discussion. To receive XP, you must attend the class and have your reading confirmed by the instructor. While these discussions are an important aspect of your learning experience, they will not be graded.

You can earn a maximum of 150 XP per week, and the maximum mark allocation for this assignment is 20 marks, which is equivalent to 1,000 XP.

在整個課程中，你需要閱讀課程大綱指定及建議的閱讀材料。請注意，你不須閱讀所有指定文本；相反，透過每星期的閱讀，你將累積相應的經驗值 (XP)，並計算在課程成績之中。閱讀每頁與本課程內容相關的英文文獻，你將獲得 4 點 XP；閱讀每頁中文文獻，則將獲得 2.5 點 XP。累計每 50 點 XP，你將獲得 1 分。

請每周記錄你的閱讀日誌，並在每周課堂開始前提交給老師。你可自行選擇閱讀的範圍，只要是列寫在課程大綱或「專題報告與學期論文指引」中、並與本課程範圍相關的文本便可。在課堂上，老師將隨機挑選學生分享他們每周閱讀的內容，並開展簡短的非正式討論。要獲得 XP，你必須出席該周課堂，並經教師確認你已完成閱讀。然而，討論本身將不計分。

您每周最多可以獲得 150 點 XP。此項功課的最高分數為 20 分，相當於 1,000 點 XP。

F. AI CHATBOT POLICY

As we enter an era where collaboration between humans and AI is becoming an integral part of our lives, it is expected that you will frequently collaborate with or utilize AI tools. Therefore, the use of AI chatbots, including but not limited to ChatGPT, for learning and completing assignments is permitted without the need for acknowledgment. However, it is essential to understand the limitations of these tools and use them judiciously. Additionally, the principles of academic honesty and plagiarism rules continue to apply as usual. For instance, copying content generated by an AI chatbot without proper acknowledgment is prohibited. Any assignment should be your original work, potentially enhanced by AI chatbots but not generated solely by them. For more information, please refer to the document, "Use of Artificial Intelligence Tools in Teaching, Learning, and Assessments: A Guide for Students," issued by the University.

Students should be aware that AI chatbots cannot replace thorough research and writing. For instance, at its current development stage, ChatGPT may not consistently provide reliable information, particularly when it comes to details. However, when used judiciously, it can serve as an excellent consultant and companion. Specifically, ChatGPT can be helpful in brainstorming research questions, constructing arguments, analyzing and contextualizing primary sources, translating documents, and assisting with copy-editing tasks.

G. ACADEMIC HONESTY AND PLAGIARISM

- Attention is drawn to University policy and regulations on honesty in academic work, and to the disciplinary guidelines and procedures applicable to breaches of such policy and regulations. Details may be found at <http://www.cuhk.edu.hk/policy/academic honesty/>.
- With each assignment, students will be required to submit a signed declaration that they are aware of these policies, regulations, guidelines and procedures. For group projects, all students of the same group should be asked to sign the declaration.
- For assignments in the form of a computer-generated document that is principally text-based and submitted via VeriGuide, the statement, in the form of a receipt, will be issued by the system upon students' uploading of the soft copy of the assignment. Assignments without the receipt will not be graded by teachers. Only the final version of the assignment should be submitted via VeriGuide.

- Please upload a scanned copy of the signed receipt to Blackboard Learn. (Do not send it through email.)

H. GENERAL GRADING POLICY

The grading follows the general grading policy of the CUHK outlined below:

- A / Excellent: Outstanding performance on ALL learning outcomes.
Demonstrates the ability to synthesize and apply the principles or skills learned in the course in a manner that would surpass the normal expectations at this level and typical of standards that may be common at higher levels of study.
- A- / Very Good: Generally outstanding performance on all or almost all learning outcomes.
Demonstrates the ability to synthesize and apply the principles or skills learned in the course in a manner that would fully fulfill the normal expectations at this level and occasionally reaches standards that may be common at higher levels of study.
- B / Good: Substantial performance on all learning outcomes, OR high performance on some learning outcomes which compensates for slightly less satisfactory performance on others, resulting in overall substantial performance.
Demonstrates the ability to apply the principles or skills learned in the course in a comprehensive manner that would sufficiently fulfill the normal expectations at this level.
- C / Fair: Satisfactory performance on the majority of learning outcomes.
Demonstrates the ability to partially apply the principles or skills learned in the course in a manner that would meet the basic requirement at this level.
- D / Pass: Barely satisfactory performance on a number of learning outcomes.
Addresses the task inadequately by meeting the basic requirement at this level only in some areas while responding minimally with possibly tangential content in others.
- F / Failure: Unsatisfactory performance on a number of learning outcomes, OR failure to meet specified assessment requirements.
Fails to address the task and likely does not understand what the task requires. In other words, the work completely misses the point.

Appendix I: Grading Rubric for Oral Presentation

	Excellent / Very Good	Good	Fair	Poor/Inadequate
Response to Assignment	The presentation responds to the assignment and addresses the topic and all requirements, at an appropriate technical level for the intended audience	The presentation responds to the assignment and addresses the topic, but has minor weaknesses with respect to some of the requirements and/or appropriate technical level	The presentation responds to the assignment and addresses the topic, but has significant weaknesses with respect to some of the requirements and/or appropriate technical level	The presentation does not respond to many of the requirements of the assignment, and/or is poorly tailored for the intended audience
Analysis and Discussion	Presented material is completely analyzed and evaluated, providing support for main points with reasons, discussion of alternatives, explanations, and examples as appropriate	Presented material is analyzed and evaluated and appropriate reasons, discussion of alternatives, explanations, and examples are given for most of the main points	Presented material is analyzed and evaluated at a reasonable level but is not used effectively to support many of the main points	The depth of analysis and evaluation of the presented material is not sufficient, and discussion contains unnecessary or trivial material
Organization	The presentation is well-structured; its organization contributes to its purpose. The problem is clearly stated and technical content is well ordered for clarity	The presentation is generally well-structured, with only a few flaws in overall organization	The presentation has a defined structure, but the organization is not optimal for supporting the presentation's content	The presentation is poorly structured; organizational flaws undermine its effectiveness and clarity

Style and Format	The visual aids (e.g. PowerPoint slides) are informative, well designed, easy to read, and complement the speaker's content. The number of slides is consistent with the time limit of the presentation	The visual aids are informative and generally supportive of the presentation, but could be improved to more effectively complement the speaker's content	The visual aids are generally supportive of the presentation, but some of them are difficult to read, too busy, and/or not necessary for the intent of the talk	Visual aids are not designed to effectively convey the information intended by the speaker
Speaking Skills	Speaker is well prepared, establishes effective eye contact with the audience, speaks clearly and audibly, stays on topic and finishes the presentation on time	Speaker is prepared and familiar with the content of the visual aids, but may occasionally stray from topic and/or have other deficiencies in speaking style	Speaker is reasonably prepared but tends to look at visual aids for prompting, and is not able to communicate all of the intended content	Speaker is not prepared and has to read from visual aids or cue cards, does not use voice or body language effectively to engage audience in topic
Conclusions	Key points are clearly restated at the end of the talk so that the audience clearly understands the purpose of the technical work	The presentation has a conclusion, but some of the key points are not highlighted effectively	The presentation has a brief conclusion but is not substantial in content	The presentation seems to end abruptly without any summation for the audience

Appendix II: Grading Rubric for Term Paper

	Excellent / Very Good	Good	Fair	Poor/Inadequate
Thesis	A clear statement of what is being proposed or argued in the paper	The thesis is easily detectable after reading the paper, but it is not presented in a single and clear statement	The thesis is present, but a reader must work hard to reconstruct from the entire paper	There is no thesis or central argument/proposal to tie the paper together, or the thesis is unclear
Arguments	Each reason, support, or argument to follow the thesis is made clear, thorough, relevant and convincing. Proper references are consistently made to the text in question (biblical and/or a textbook) to show why the proposed thesis is valid	Arguments made to support the thesis are clear, but less thorough, relevant, and/or convincing. References are often made to the text in question (biblical and/or a textbook) to show why the proposed thesis is valid, but this is done not as consistently	Arguments made to support the thesis are acceptable but sketchy or their relevance unclear. Some references are made to the text in question (biblical and/or a textbook) to show why the proposed thesis is valid	Arguments to support the thesis are missing, irrelevant, or not convincing. The paper makes lots of claims or assertions that are not substantiated. There are few or no references to the text in question (biblical and/or a textbook) to show why the proposed thesis is valid
Counter-arguments	The paper acknowledges, anticipates, and accounts for conflicting evidence, counter-examples, counter-arguments, and/or opposing positions, even ones that are not obvious or not yet been made in writings of others	The paper acknowledges and accounts for obvious conflicting evidence, counter-examples, counter-arguments, and/or opposing positions	The paper acknowledges and accounts for a few obvious conflicting evidence, counter-examples, and counter-arguments, but miss other obvious opposing positions; or the paper acknowledges counter-arguments without accounting for them	No awareness or acknowledgment of conflicting evidence, counter-examples, counter-arguments, or opposing positions

Organization	The paper's flow, from one paragraph to another, is consistently sensible, logical, and always with clear transitions; the movement from introduction to the body and then the conclusion is easy to follow and coherent	The paper's flow, from one paragraph to another, is largely sensible and logical. Transitions are mostly appropriate; the movement from introduction to the body and then the conclusion is distinguishable if not easy to follow	There are signs of sensible and logical organization, but these are mixed with abrupt or illogical shifts and ineffective flow of ideas; the movement from introduction to the body and then the conclusion is not clearly distinguishable	The paper does not flow well in terms of organization or for the argument of the thesis; transitions from paragraph to paragraph or from one idea to the next are missing; the movement from introduction to the body and then the conclusion is non-existent.
