

New Asia College
Application for Room Share (Temporary) Scheme for Term 2, 2023-24

Students who are in need for hostel residence for the upcoming semester but have not been offered a hostel place yet may consider applying for Room Share (Temporary) Scheme, The Scheme operates entirely on a voluntary basis – 2 or 3 students with allocated hostel places in the same assigned room can opt to team up with another student to share their rooms of Standard Double Room/ Standard Triple Room (only for Chih Hsing Hall). Please refer to the College Website for further information of the Scheme.

Hostel \ Gender	Male	Female	Total
Chih Hsing Hall	43	--	43
Xuesi Hall	--	26	26
Grace Tien Hall	5	17	22
Daisy Li Hall	21	21	42
Mei Yun Tang	13	15	28
Total	82	79	161

All successful applications will be approved if no. of applications does not exceed the maximum quota of respective hostel, otherwise, the below selection mechanism will take place:

- Calculating hostel points for applicants by using Google Map with a designated workflow to examine the travel time between their home location and the University. Applicants with higher hostel points will be given priority;
- If a valid comparison is not possible, a lottery draw will be adopted.

Important Notes:

1. Applicants MUST complete this application form and submit an online application by 11:59pm on January 21, 2024. Please ensure that you have uploaded this completed application form;
2. It is important to note that students admitted to the Room Share (Temporary) Scheme will not be eligible for the Guaranteed One-Year Residence Scheme, even if they decide to drop out at a later time;
3. If any of the residents under the Scheme decided to withdraw from the hostel, the policy and procedure as stipulated in the New Asia College Student Hostel Regulations section 1.2 should be followed. The remaining eligible residents are required to pay the full accommodation fee proportionally from the day the withdrawal becomes effective.
